In Romulus election

Folmar unopposed; 25 candidates to run

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

Incumbent City Clerk Leonard Folmar is the only elected official in Romulus who will run unopposed in the upcoming city election.

Some 25 candidates, including Folmar, filed for office July 22 and passed on the July 25 withdrawal deadline to create a 4-man field for the position of mayor, a 2-man field for treasurer and a 17-man field for council in the primary.

On Sept. 2 voters will be asked to select two mayoral candidates and 14 council candidates for the Nov. 4 general election ballot.

Filing for the mayor's office were incumbent Mayor Terry L. Troutt of 16325 Farnum St. and challengers Glenn Free of 11131 Delano, Clayton W. Meldrum of 9508 Biddle and James C. Stewart of 7164 Harrison.

Stewart is a Romulus councilman, Meldrum a former building department director and Free is a city employee.

Filing for treasurer were incumbent John B. Lewkowicz of 36723 Grant Road and challenger Franklin Ayers Sr. of 8685 Kenwood.

For all practical purposes, Lewkowicz and Ayers won't campaign in the September primary ballot, since voters have been asked to select two treasurer candidates for the November general election.

Included in the ranks of the 17 council hopefuls were incumbents Fred Junior Block of 15099 Middle Belt, Lnnng Coleman of 6014 Colorado, Joan Lee of 28433 Cherry, Beverly McAnally of 6330 Hyde Park, William M. Oakley of 9875 Tobine Road, and Jack Trumble of 28305 Goddard Road.

Challenging them are Robert Abbey of 8659 Hollywood, Gervazio Canejo of 16321 Dodge, Jerry Dahlstrom of 37412 Heroux, Charles R. Dick Jr. of 34449 California, Charlie Harris of 34912 Beverly Road, Kenneth R. Howington of 30756 Cherry St., Joseph R. Kochanowski of 16235 Hannan Road, Jon W. Madish of 9369 Berry, Robert H. Martin of 9533 Essex, Jimmie C. Raspberry of 36254 Park Place and Oliver Warren of 34160 Beecher Road.

The non-incumbent council field brings with it some previous political experience.

Raspberry is a former mayor pro tem of the city, serving on the City Council from 1971 to 1973, and is a former township trustee and constable.

Canejo is a former Romulus Board of Education member and ran in the council primary in 1973.

Both Dick and Martin ran in the council race in 1973, with Dick eliminated in the primary and Martin in the general election.

A beautifying effort

Romulus resident Pat Rice of 34535 Malcolm St. is the recipient of this month's gardening award offered by the Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary. Pat Varady (right) corresponding secretary of the auxiliary offered Mrs. Rice the award for one of the best-kept gardens in the town. The award program is designed to encourage residents of the city to help beautify it with greenery. Gardens can be entered in the August contest by calling either 941-6195 or 941-1518. — The Romulus Roman photo.

2 offer experience as 1 reason to run

Two of the four candidates for mayor in the City of Romulus believe they can better serve the people with their experience.

The two, Clayton W. Meldrum and James C. Stewart, were the only candidates to answer The Romulus Roman's first campaign questions on the mayoral race.

The questions were: Why do you seek the office of mayor in the City of Romulus? What are your qualifications for handling the administrative affairs of a growing city of 30,000 residents?

Meldrum said he sought the office because "I feel I have a lot to offer in the area of budget and tax reform and aid to senior citizens."

Stewart said: "I feel that I can better serve the citizens of Romulus in the capacity of mayor. For the past eight years as township trustee and city councilman I have served the people true and honest, but I have felt limited in the duties of a councilman."

He added: "I feel that the taxpayers deserve better leadership than they now are receiving and have a more responsible government to better use their tax dollars."

Meldrum said his background as president of an electrical contractor firm and as maintenance director for a major steel firm combined with past experience as director of the Building and Safety Department in Romulus offers the citizens experience needed to run the city. Currently he is maintenance foreman for the Romulus School District.

He added: "I view the mayoral post as being director of a large corporation with the voters as stockholders. If I am chosen to run the corporation of Romulus, I will do my best to offer a good return to the stockholders.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In our effort to provide you with the best possible coverage of the city elections, The Romulus Roman has introduced an issue forum. Each week candidates will be answering issue questions relating to the election and life in Romulus. This week the question was addressed to mayoral candidates. A question for City Council candidates was made available at our office at noon today. Answers to the question must be returned in writing to us by noon Monday. As a service to our readers, we are placing the issue forum in this handy clip-out format and suggest voters save the stories for re-reading before going to the polls. Questions about the issue forum should be directed to Editor Lucy Wiesend.

"I have fought for people all my life and intend to continue."

Stewart said his status as "the senior elected official in Romulus" and experience of two years as elected highway commissioner, two years on the Romulus Township Planning Commission, four years as chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals, four years as elected township trustee and more than five years as councilman with "near perfect attendance except when on vacation or out with illness" offered citizens good qualifications for mayor.

Included in his service was the proposal of "massive water and sewer programs," road programs and the negotiation of two union contracts, Stewart wrote in answering The Roman's questions.

"I have a better understanding of what employees need and want to harmonize the relationship with city officials," he added. "I would propose better planning for industry, business and airport-related land uses to keep taxes down in Romulus."

Also seeking the office of mayor in the community are incumbent Terry L. Troutt and Glenn Free.

Hydrants gain 'look'

Unightly fire hydrants are taking on a new look in Romulus, as the city's Beautification Commission is urging residents to spruce up the safety plugs with paint.

According to fire hydrant painting committee chairman, Sandra Taylor, the plan is to paint every fire hydrant in Romulus to commemorate the nation's Bicentennial. "I've seen them in other communities, and I've got to say they really look cute," Mrs. Taylor said. "We're hoping to do the same in Romulus."

The plan is a continuation of the Beautification Commission's operation to make Romulus a more sightly community during the entire year. The operation was kicked off during April and May with an annual, though expanded, spring clean-up headed by Romulus Council President Pro Tem Joan A. Lee. During the clean up, which urged homeowners to spruce up their yards by eliminating unsightly messes, the commission also began the first "spruce up" of the city by urging the planting of flowers for the Bicentennial.

"It's our goal to make the community look better," Mrs. Taylor said. "This program isn't just to get some patriotic red, white and blue on the fire hydrants, but to make them interesting."

Virtually "anything goes," so long as it doesn't upset the public mores, according to Mrs. Taylor.

"We'll hope for little figures on the fire hydrants, or the stars and stripes motif, or whatever citizens have a flare for doing," she said. "These fire plugs can be made to look beautiful with a little ingenuity."

The 2-week-old program began near the Romulus Civic Center where the fire plugs were painted up. It spread down main streets and into subdivisions, with the subdivision near Wayne and Wick roads having the most participation.

It happens to be the area where Mrs. Taylor lives.

"There are about 20 fire plugs already painted in my sub," Mrs. Taylor said. "I'm hoping the program will spread."

Persons hoping to decorate a fire hydrant can make arrangements to obtain paint, in virtually any color, from Mrs. Taylor. She can be reached at 941-5832.

COURT Officials agree on need

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

Officials of four communities who use the 34th District Court in Romulus have agreed the only means to solve a space crunch in the facility is by building a new court.

But those same officials — from Romulus, Belleville, Sumter Township and Van Buren Township — see difficulty in finding an equitable means to finance that construction.

The community leaders met July 23 to discuss the possibility of building a new court, and left with a consensus that they would ask their respective legislative bodies for opinions on how to finance the construction.

"I think we can say there was agreement on three points," said Romulus Mayor Terry L. Troutt, after presenting the initial proposal on a means to finance the new building. "We've agreed that we will construct our own court rather than rent, that an authority will supervise the construction and that we have to explore the method of financing."

Troutt has suggested that the communities consider foregoing their regular payments of fines from court trials to help finance a new facility.

Last year, Wayne County in behalf of Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Belleville, and the townships of Sumter, Van Buren and Huron split more than $87,000 from fines levied by the court.

Romulus sent its fine money back into the court budget.

Troutt maintained that the fine payments could cover an anticipated $110,000 per year construction cost, when combined with the extra money Romulus spent on the court.

Officials were up in the air about whether they were willing to forgo the fines, particularly when Troutt suggested that the court construction be financed on a "participation basis" by communities.

The Romulus mayor's plan called for each community to send a proportionate share of the $110,000 cost to the court on the basis of court use during the three months prior to each payment.

Belleville Mayor Ellis Amerman termed that method "a gamble my city can't take."

'I think that's important in these times.'

He said: "Belleville has just embarked on an extremely tight budget, which can't stand any changes right now. There's no way the city could agree without knowing what the cost would be before hand."

Troutt said that the cities and townships utilizing the court could have some check on the costs they would be paying by monitoring the court budget.

However, he added that under his plan, payments could fluctuate during the period of construction depending on how much "business" each community does in the court.

Sumter Township Supervisor Elmer Parraghi was adamant in desiring an authority to operate the court, rather than operating through a build-lease agreement with a private developer.

"If it is an authority, then we have the opportunity to obtain federal funding," Parraghi said. "I think that's important in these times."

He added that a majority of the communities which participate in the 34th District Court "are satisfied with an authority they belong to, although I'd like to see some rules governing a community's right to withdraw changed a bit."

Only Van Buren Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer appeared to be cool toward plans for new court construction.

"It was discussed at a township board meeting, and I can say that the matter was viewed rather coolly, with a slight negative reaction by the township board," Gollwitzer said. "It may change if there were some concrete proposal to work with."

Those in attendance has agreed to meet once more on the court question to iron out details of a resolution to be requested of each township or city legislative body authorizing an exploration of means to construct a new building.

Only Huron Township, which hasn't attended the last three meetings, but which participates in the 34th District Court, could offer no opinion.

Parraghi suggested that the major administrative leaders in each community — supervisors and mayors — iron out details on the proposal and then ask approval of their legislative bodies, before going to Huron for approval.

Judge James Stone of the 34th District Court admitted that gaining Huron's agreement to participate may be difficult, but said: "I think if the four other governmental bodies agree, Judge Henry Zaborowski and I could go to the Huron officials and request their opinion."

Troutt added: "I think if others agree, then Huron will be willing to at least discuss the matter."

Without strict budgeting

County may face $7 million budget deficit

Unless a strict savings plan already in effect for six months is strengthened and continued, Wayne County faces a potential $7 million budget deficit by the end of November, according to the Wayne County Board of Auditors.

The 3-member board warned of that possibility in a report to the Ways and Means Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners last week. "We think the mandatory savings plan should be continued, and we reiterate our earlier statement that expansion of existing programs or espousal of new program, requiring additional funding, must be avoided scrupulously," the report said.

The mandatory savings plan was ordered by the county board in March when the auditors were predicting a possible $6.5 million deficit that could reach $10 million, if spending continued at the same level.

The new $7 million deficit projection is based on revenues and expenditures through May 31, the 6-month point in the fiscal year which ends Nov. 30, the auditors' report said.

In urging continuation of the mandatory savings plan the report notes that county departments already have achieved savings that will amount to an estimated $6.5 million by Nov. 30.

Under the plan, line item departments, such as the County Clerk, Register of Deeds and auditors, have saved $2.6 million. The court system has saved $1.4 million, Wayne County General Hospital, $2.4 million, and the Sheriff's Department, $150,000.

The auditors in the report said they did not credit possible revenues, based on "contingent factors," which is revenue they are not positive the county will receive by Nov. 30.

However, the report did list the possibilities, which the auditors said could cause the projected deficit to range from a high of $8 million to a low of $1.2 million.

This contingent revenue amounts to a total of $10 million, more than the highest projected deficit, and includes:

—$1 million in revenue due from the City of Detroit for the 1974-75 payment under terms of the old Welfare Merger Agreement.

Hendrix collects position

Richard A. Hendrix, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Hendrix of 356 Brain St., Belleville, has been commissioned a Navy ensign upon graduation from Aviation Officer Candidate School at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

The 16-week course includes instruction on the fundamentals of aerodynamics and engineering, aviation physiology, mathematics and general military subjects. It is designed to prepare students for more than a year of intensive ground and inflight training leading toward their designation as naval aviators.

A 1972 graduate of Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, with a bachelor of science in chemistry, he joined the Navy in December 1974.

As he grows and learns, you are there to guide him and to advise him — to help him gain all the knowledge he needs. But there is even more you can do — Investing in a 5¼% daily interest passbook savings plan can help you accumulate funds for knowledge he will learn outside of the home later — perhaps at a college or university.

Watch him grow as your funds grow — by investing — because you love him.

Grassroots upset: 'Voice wasn't heard'

Opinion still is strong on Romulus' proposed $14 million city improvement package to be decided in a special Aug. 12 city election.

The group opposing plans to pave roads and build a recreation center with bonding capacity in the city as proposed in the election met with Mayor Terry L. Troutt last week to air their opinions on the program, but charge their voice wasn't heard by area news media because of a long speech by Troutt.

Richard Campbell, leader of the group known as Grassroots said the people met with Troutt Thursday evening to air their opinions "but reporters from major newspapers left the meeting early because of the long speech."

Troutt had agreed to meet with the Grassroots members, which Campbell estimates made up about 40 percent of the 150-person crowd in Romulus City Hall. But groundrules for the meeting called for a presentation by the mayor prior to questions from the floor.

Campbell said he was contacted by reporters following the meeting "and they said they couldn't sit through the whole speech."

But despite a lack of immediate newspaper coverage, Campbell added that the meeting with Troutt "strengthened the cause a bit."

"It was packed with city employees," Campbell said of the meeting. "But still I think some non-involved citizens learned of our concern."

Troutt denied the meeting was packed, though he said he did see "some people I knew were supporting the program in attendance."

And he disagreed with Campbell's assessment of the meeting results, stating: "I think we strengthened support for the program, when we told the story on what it will mean to all residents."

"I was pleased, and thought it was a good meeting."

However, in an impromptu neighborhood meeting called Monday afternoon, Campbell and 10 supporters still aired their grievances concerning the proposal — which calls for bonding for $5 million for a recreation facility and another $9.1 million to pave virtually every road in the city.

"It's great to make these proposals," said Anna Moore of Westvale in Romulus. "But we're getting the dessert before the meat and potatoes."

"What good is it to get a recreation center when we don't have police and fire?"

Added Carol Mason, a neighbor of Campbell and Mrs. Moore: "I resent they compare us with Taylor and Westland in this campaign, because both those cities received police and fire protection before getting recreation centers."

"The way it is now, we'll be building a recreation building that can't be protected from vandals because of lack of police."

Rose Silvey, another neighbor of the group leader, said: "Our house payments have gone up $26 during the past year to cover tax increases — and now they want more."

"The thing that upsets me is that this is being voted on one month before the general election, and of the five pollworkers at each precinct in the city, four will be getting $40 for the day and the chairman will be getting $50."

"That's a waste of money."

The neighbors agreed that they opposed paying for another person's road paving "because we have paid for our own."

But Sue Stokley added: "It wouldn't be so bad if it weren't all at once."

"Originally this thing was to be approved gradually, with some roads paved each year, and costing taxpayers less than with a lump sum $9 million paving program."

Members of the group claimed they were feeling an economic pinch which prohibited them from voting in new taxes.

Said Mrs. Moore: "Our house payments went up $34 per month to cover extra costs, and my husband has missed 11 months work in the past two years."

Mrs. Mason added that her husband, who's employed at the Ford Motor Co. Michigan Truck Plant "hasn't had such an unsteady schedule, and trucks are supposed to be needed all the time."

Mrs. Silvey added that her husband just completed four months off of work.

"The main thing is that we paid for our streets long ago, and now we're being asked to pay for someone else's streets in these hard times," said neighbor David Furlow. "People can't meet their house payments, and taxes could be raised."

Resident speaks out for two bonding plans

A resident of Romulus who said he has been "uninvolved in the past" has come out to back the city's proposal to bond for recreation facilities and road paving if approved in a special election Aug. 12.

Paul Kubitsky, a 19-year-resident of Romulus, said he is in favor of the program, despite statements by another "non-involved resident" who opposes the road paving and recreation construction program — Richard Campbell.

"I've been reading stories about this man who opposes the program, and want newspapers to know that I'm not with him, and I'm in favor of the plan," Kubitsky said. "I've lived on an unpaved road for most of the time I've been in Romulus. And even though I don't have kids, I've been paying for the subdivision residents' schooling."

"So it's time I received some help."

Kubitsky, who said he has been employed in the Romulus School District, claims that $300 of his annual $600 tax bill goes toward the schools.

"My taxes were $75 when I moved to Romulus, and now they're $600 for my one acre," he said. "My taxes have gone up, but I want the program."

Kubitsky said he faces a $14 increase in costs for taxes if the bonding proposals were approved "but I'm willing to accept it."

"My road needs paving, and all you have to do is come by to see why," he said. "I can't cut the grass without first taking rocks out, and I used to have a patio in front of the home, until the dust got too bad."

"But I'm also in favor of recreation."

The school district worker said he has noticed a "great decline in vandalism" on schools since Romulus initiated a recreation program.

"I think the construction of a recreation center will help that even more, reducing crime by youths by giving them a place to go."

Kubitsky said he will go to the polls Aug. 12 to cast a "yes" vote on both proposals.

"But I'm not a campaign worker," he added. "I'm just a resident concerned about his taxes too, and wanting more for my taxes than I've received in the past."

Teen-ager dies

An 18-year-old Romulus man has been buried following his drowning death while swimming in Sumpter Township.

Services for David Burnham, 18, of 12040 Huron River Dr., Romulus, were held July 24 at Roberts Bros. Funeral Home in Belleville after he perished in a swimming accident at a gravel pit near Sherwood and War roads in Sumpter.

According to a spokesman for the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Marine Division, Burnham and another companion were swimming in the pit when they decided to go across the 200-yard width.

The two got 15-feet from shore, when Burnham floundered and went under in exhaustion, according to the friend's report to the sheriff.

Two divers at the pit went to the bottom immediately to raise the man, but were unsuccessful in reviving him.

An autopsy was performed following the incident, but results have not been made available to the sheriff.

The man is survived by his father, Kenneth Burnham of Romulus, his mother, Nancy Hammond of Belleville, and six brothers and sisters.

Sewer plan eyed

BELLEVILLE — Van Buren Township is embarking on a $3.8 million water and sewer project — the first bonded through the joint Canton Van Buren water and sewer authority. Original estimates on the project cost were $4.6 million, but with such low bids, Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer said he will be able to order more construction than anticipated.

Land banking?

BELLEVILLE — A university task force investigating possible uses for Willow Run Airport in the future, hint that the Federal Aviation Administration may still plan on constructing a massive air cargo facility on land in Van Buren Township, despite resident complaints on the program.

The Stanford Research Institute said the FAA may consider a "land banking" scheme even if use of Willow Run dwindles during the coming years to provide air cargo facilities if needed in the next century.

Choirs perform

It will be Music Day at the Romulus Community Mart Saturday with more than 100 voices from Romulus community church choirs displaying their talents starting at 11 a.m.

Strike bill doesn't settle problem

Perhaps it was too much to expect any useful legislation on teacher strikes from the Michigan Legislature this year.

Its members have shown time and again when they are faced with a tough, emotional issue they will do anything to avoid a decision.

But this year the heat has been on to "do something." That is what the Legislature has done — something.

The bill which finally passed the Michigan Senate is an incredible mongrelization of what originally was proposed months back by the Keith committee in the House. In the end, the question was not

"What is the best solution to a highly emotional problem?" The question was "What can we get the votes to pass?"

The Keith Committee, headed by Rep. William Keith (D-Garden City), originally proposed a bill which set up a timetable for negotiations, and with provisions for mediation and arbitration in the event of deadlocks. If, in the end, there was a strike, teachers would lose pay each day they were out, just like any other worker. School districts would lose state aid.

It was an attempt, in other words, to keep people bargaining and to provide some economic incentives not to break off negotiations.

But then the lobbyists got into the act. The issue continued on past the April 1 deadline Speaker Bobby Crim had set for final legislative action.

Now, we finally have a bill. But the bill is not a good faith attempt to settle the problem. It is an attempt by the Legislature to get the heat off itself. If Gov. Milliken vetoes it, the leaders have said, it will be his fault if there are teacher strikes this year.

That is not true.

For a while the Senate had a bill the governor said he would sign. But the Democratic leadership twisted arms and pressured people until the votes were put together to pass a bill they knew he had threatened to veto.

It gives teachers 11 days of free strikes, two more weeks of strikes with economic penalties for both teachers and school boards, and then provides for court injunctions. It attempts to be all things to everybody and ends up being nothing. Teachers can strike, but not indefinitely. School boards can go to court, but not for a while. Both sides lose money, but not for a while.

In short, it is not designed to settle the problem. It is designed to cut the political heat.

Gov. Milliken has threatened to veto the bill. We hope he does. In this case the Legislature didn't even come up with half a loaf. What it came up with is an empty bread wrapper filled with hot air.

We trust the voters will remember this next time around.

Election guidelines stir comments

By LUCY WIESEND
Ent.-Roman Editor

To some extent we caused quite a stir last week with our announced guidelines for election coverage in the City of Romulus. It appeared on the front page of The Romulus Roman.

Those guidelines simply explain our position when it comes to primary election coverage. We will not be publishing candidate press releases; we will be asking the candidates specific questions and allowing them equal space to answer those questions in an issue forum.

Most of the reaction to our announced policy was very positive. One Romulus woman called to say that she applauds our new policy and is looking forward to reading what the candidates have to say about the issues. A top city official called Wednesday to say that he too thought the issue forum was a great idea.

But another official was concerned because we reserve the right to edit, omit from and rewrite press releases and answers to questions in the issue forum.

A resident, who refused to be identified, feels the same way. That person, who did not sign a letter to the editor, wrote:

"I feel I must write this letter. After reading the Wednesday paper concerning rules and regulations for political coverage for the primary election.

"As a very concerned voter of Romulus, I would like to hear and see what the candidates have to say straight regardless of whether they use proper grammar or correct English. I don't like the idea of a person taking what they say and rewriting, omitting or not publishing it at all.

"Who gives anyone the right to do this?"

"Something very important is at stake, the next two years in the lives of every person who lives in the City of Romulus. It should be your job to publish every fact that there is. How are we the voters going to get informed?"

Our answer? You will "get" informed by reading The Romulus Roman.

That's right. We will be editing releases from candidates, and the reason we will be doing this is because we will not let any candidate fight a personality battle in this newspaper.

Campaigns for office often get very dirty. One candidate tries to dig up as much off-colored "facts" about another candidate as possible and then passes that information on to the citizens. We will not allow this to happen in your community newspaper.

The reason we established the guidelines and the issue forum was to provide the people of Romulus with the best possible election coverage. And we feel they will get it. That election coverage will center on the issues in the campaign and the qualifications of the candidates, not the dirt that probably could be dredged up about most anyone.

We will not allow candidates to libel each other, and if we print every thing the candidates want us to, this probably would happen.

If you want to read something directly from a candidate, improper English and all, there probably will be plenty of that going on.

Based on the election two years ago there was plenty of campaign literature, some of it very biased and non-factual, floating around. This year's election should prove no different.

But the letter writer, who bravely signed himself "A concerned citizen of Romulus, United States citizen," went on to write: "Also with inflation as it is you gave them the option for a paid political ad. Now really, if I were a citizen of the USSR I would expect this but I am a citizen of the United States where this should never happen."

What should never happen, we'd like to ask. Dear letter writer, are you telling us we should publish all the propaganda each candidate would like us to publish? Now really, to coin your phrase. If we were to do as you ask, you and other concerned citizens of Romulus wouldn't know which is fact and which is propaganda. But by making candidates pay for the political "propaganda" and labeling it as "paid political advertising," all Romulus citizens will know the difference between the facts (in news stories) and the propaganda (in the ads).

We do give the candidates the option of buying that ad, and printing what they want to say. But in the USSR, they wouldn't even be given that option, would they?

And dear concerned citizen, we probably surprised you by printing part of your letter. Actually we shouldn't have printed any of it because you did not follow our rules for publishing letters. You did not sign your name.

But you did write: "I know this letter will never be published because it would have to be written, edited and used at your own discretion, probably the garbush can."

But, you see, it did get published and I didn't edit very much of it, leaving your grammatical and spelling errors, for example: garbush instead of garbage; discretion instead of discretion, and weather instead of whether.

I'm usually not critical of people who make grammatical errors. I'll correct them before publishing what they have to say, but if you are not brave enough to sign your name, you'll just have to take a little of my sarcasm. Thanks for writing, anyways. But next time, sign your name.

As they see it

Special thanks for MD help

To the editor: When I was asked in March 1975 by the Muscular Dystrophy Association, if I would again volunteer my services and time as chairman for Romulus for the 16th consecutive year, in all good faith I accepted. I could not refuse or let down the thousands of children in America, who are afflicted with this tragic disease.

On June 16, I was informed by Jo Adkins and Peggy Kassuba, employees at Romulus City Hall, that the women's baseball team, mostly city employees and their friends, would play a baseball game against Wayne County sheriffs in honor of muscular dystrophy. Posters were made and displayed in the business places for the event. The game was held on June 23 at St. Aloysius's field, which the church graciously consented for the girls to use for their softball game.

I would like to give special thanks to St. Aloysius Church for its donation of the field, as the girls had trouble finding someone to donate a field for the game.

What a thrill to me, to see the energetic display of both teams, in spite of a rain shower. Volunteer contributions were given to the Muscular Dystrophy Association at the game and amounted to $20. Again thanks to all who participated.

Another great function for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, was held on July 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lambert, 38475 Westvale St., Romulus. The function was called the Muscular Dystrophy Carnival. There were games, prizes and refreshments. The main attraction at the carnival was a spook tent, which was made by Bobby Lambert.

I could not imagine, the untiring efforts, time and energy of these children, ranging from the ages of seven to 14, who worked many weeks to make the carnival a success. The children made up all the games, had posters distributed to all business places, including a news item in The Romulus Roman, and bought several prizes for the games. They went out into their neighborhood and collected more than $100 for the prizes and games.

I would like to take time also to thank all the parents, neighbors and friends who took their time to help with this carnival, many of them taking off from their jobs.

There are so many people I wish to thank, it almost is impossible to list all their names, but I tried to thank the majority in a personal way.

I would like to give special thanks to Jewel Davis for her ice cream truck, which was at the Muscular Dystrophy Carnival, that all the proceeds she sold, 50 percent was donated to muscular dystrophy. Special thanks to Zeco's Party Store on Goddard Road, which generously donated a large amount of potato chips; Jerry's Party Store on Inkster and Eureka Roads, which also donated 50 bags of potato chips and hot dogs, and also Wonder Bread on Goddard Road, which donated all the hot dog buns, which were enjoyed by all who were at the carnival. The children who put on the carnival, were overjoyed with the donations of the food. The carnival proceeds amounted to $330.

Hopefully in the years to come, with the help of the Lord, this disease will be conquered; however as we are trying to reach this goal, I would hope more citizens, children and business people in the City of Romulus, will from their hearts, generously donate time, refreshments, and money, so that next year it will be a successful carnival.

The baseball game and carnival were the first efforts to perform functions to raise money by citizens of Romulus for muscular dystrophy. Finally, I sincerely express my heart felt thanks to all who participated in both functions. Sincere thanks to Peggy and Jo, who arranged the baseball game against the Wayne County sheriffs.

Last but not least, sincere thanks to the following children, who organized a super carnival — Bobby Lambert, Mary Sweet, Zina Matheny, Dana Matheny, Kenny Cotham, Steve Cotham, and Dawn Cotham. It was a fantastic carnival and a job well done kids.

I only have one request to the people who attended the baseball game or carnival — just to take a few minutes of their time and submit a note or letter to the editorial page of this newspaper, to make all the citizens of Romulus aware of the honor bestowed upon muscular dystrophy.

I indeed feel very humble but so honored to be chairman of muscular dystrophy and I do take pride in the City of Romulus for such efforts.

Elvera A. Fischer
Romulus chairman, for Muscular Dystrophy

Ordinance sought

To the editor: Enclosed please find a copy of a letter sent to the Romulus council and mayor. I would appreciate it if you could print it in the section of the paper devoted to public opinion as a letter to the editor.

Charlotte L. McBride

Dear Mayor Troutt and Councilmen: The Romulus Horseman's Association is greatly concerned over the delay in passage of the proposed animal control ordinance and horse zoning.

In looking back, we are shocked to realize that the proposed changes were brought to the attention of the City of Romulus in January 1974. Concerned citizens attended public hearings, Planning Commission meetings, and council meetings throughout the spring, summer and fall of 1974. Our work done, we were confident that January of 1975 would see the adoption of the horse zoning.

We feel that it is vital that the proposed horse zoning be passed immediately. We fear the thousands of tax dollars, and hours of council time, and the efforts of concerned citizens already spent on this legislation will be wasted if adoption is not completed before newly elected officials take office this fall. How much longer must we patiently wait?

Charlotte L. McBride,
President,
Romulus Horseman's
Association

The Enterprise-Roman is committed to bringing the Bicentennial closer to our readers. And as part of that effort, a series, "The Michigan Big Story," will be published weekly. The 76-part series includes topics which contributed to the shaping and direction of the State of Michigan. The impact which this series is certain to have will provide a legacy for future generations of readers as they look back on what we did to celebrate the Bicentennial in Michigan, according to the Michigan Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The series is being prepared by the commission.

DETROIT (MAY 21, 1941) — Ford workers have chosen to be represented by the United Auto Workers (UAW) following an election held here today.

Seventy percent of the votes cast were for the UAW, 27 percent were for the rival American Federation of Labor Union. Only 3 percent of the voting workers voted for no union.

Ford Motor Co. becomes the last major automobile firm to become unionized. Ford long had fought the attempts to allow workers to bargain collectively.

The company had its own police force known as "The Service Department" to enforce its anti-union stance.

An unnamed worker at the plant summed up the attitude this way: "You couldn't talk on the job. You were watched all of the time. Smiling or laughing was forbidden. Any meeting of more than two workers was seen as union organizing, everyone was afraid for his job."

National Labor Relations Board decisions against "unfair labor practices" as well as bad publicity surrounding the violence, paved the way for today's vote.

Earlier Walter Reuther and Richard Frankenstein, both UAW executives, were beaten badly by Ford's Service Department men, in what has been called the "battle of the overpass."

Gov. Van Wagoner had arranged for today's vote after workers walked off their jobs earlier this month.

Reliable sources indicate that Ford now is ready to settle with the union, although Ford spokesman Harry Bennett called the walkout a "Communist demonstration of violence and terrorism."

Several residents of the Belleville - Romulus communities are the proud parents of new infants, following their births at Beyer Memorial Hospital recently.

Heritage meal called success by organizer

Hundreds of Metropolitan Detroit-area residents attended the first Metropolitan Detroit Educational Careers Institute-sponsored heritage dinner-dance organized by a Romulus family.

Those attending some of whom came from as far away as Memphis, Tenn., learned about the common heritage between the United States and Bermuda during the July 12 dinner dance through a visit to the Detroit area by a contingent of 10 prominent Bermudian residents who brought greetings to the nation in its Bicentennial year.

"The program was most gratifying and informative," said John G. Roundtree Sr., organizer of the event. "The idea was to help citizens of this nation familiarize themselves with cultures of other nations in this hemisphere to breed better understanding among nations and the men who make them up."

"I think, at least for the persons who attend, this goal was reached."

The Bermudian contingent, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pearman Philip of Somerset, Bermuda, not only participated in a program honoring the nation on its 200th anniversary, but also performed authentic Bermudian rituals for those attending.

A group, known as the Bryan Butterfield Review, sang, danced, played musical instruments and performed authentic Bermudian rituals for those attending.

The show was called "Salutations from Bermuda to the United States on Its 200th Birthday - A Prelude to the 1976 Bicentennial."

Roundtree, one of the co-founders of the Educational Careers Institute, said the program was meant to be more than entertainment.

"It was an attempt to reach out to citizens of this nation to breed understanding among men," he said. "I believe, as the educational careers institute believes, that better understanding of the various cultures which make up the American culture, will show persons that differences among men should be minimized because there is so much we share in common."

Roundtree described the Philip family as "one of the most prominent and influential" of Bermuda. Philip is the general manager of the radio-television station ZFB in Bermuda and is editor and publisher of the Bermuda Record. He also is a well-known civic leader on the island.

Attending the dance were State Rep. Jackie Vaughn III, the wife of U.S. Rep. Charles C. Diggs and many area residents.

Among those in attendance were Irene Watt Williams of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Marquis W. Woody of Westland, Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Massey of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. William Roseburr of Romulus, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stewart of Inkster.

In addition Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Edwards of Inkster, Mr. and Mrs. Lavell Rich were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bohms of Edwards, Belleville, who welcomed an 8 lb. - 7 oz. boy, born July 16.

Also welcoming new sons were Mr. and Mrs. Rickie Hawthorne of McBride, Belleville, a 9 lb.-2 oz. boy, born July 17, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Publiski of Willis Road, Belleville, a 7-pound boy, born July 20.

Among medical patients at the Ypsilanti hospital were Norton Ligon of Oak Boulevard, Belleville; David McMullian of Chase Boulevard, Belleville; Mrs. Grover Lawson of Barr Drive, Belleville, and Katherine Wilcox of Wear Road, Belleville.

Surgical patients included Edward Snodgrass of Judd Road, Belleville; Mrs. Tony M. Hall of Fester, Belleville; Juan Bustamante of Bemis Road, Belleville; Jacqueline Scott of Edgewood Street, Belleville; Iva McMillen of Lore Road, Belleville; Dayna Powers of Willis Road, Belleville, and Bobby Wright of Beck Road, Belleville.

"Persons attending the dinner termed it most rewarding," he said. "That is reason enough to continue it."

It takes 5 great restaurants,
2 swinging lounges,
1 groovy Beach Bar and
Peanuts Taylor's Drumbeat

People make various provisions in their wills. As we all know, a will involves arrangements for giving, while living. Cash, commendations, awards, wardrobes, property, plaques, etc. are all left behind when the time comes. In one way or another such things are left behind to serve others. This sort of thinking prompts this question: "What is one of the greatest gifts you can leave to others?"

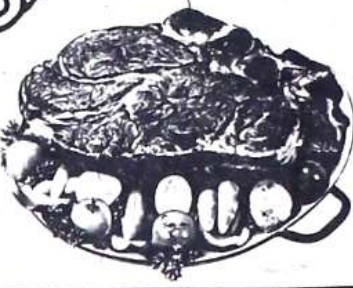

An unknown author answers the question rather nicely... Read it... "If I can leave behind me, here and there... A friend or two to say when I am gone... That I had helped to make their pathways fair... Had brought them smiles when they were bowed with care... The riches of this world I'll carry on... If only three or four shall pause to say... When I have passed beyond this earthly sphere... That I brought gladness to them on a day when bitterness was theirs... I'll take away more riches than a billionaire leaves here."

NBD unit opens

National Bank of Detroit's (NBD) permanent facility for its Belleville-Ecorse branch office has been opened officially with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The Belleville-Ecorse is the third NBD office in the Van Buren Township and Belleville area. The permanent structure for the bank's Lakewood Center branch in this township also is scheduled for completion this fall.

"We're happy to be a part of a growing area," said Kenneth Roberts, manager of Ecorse Road office. "NBD is committed to the community's expansion."

Harry L. Lapham, vice-president and director of NBD's Metro South Regional Banking Center; Neil Banks, manager of NBD's other Belleville office; Elton Gollwitzer, Van Buren Township supervisor; and Dorothy York, Township treasurer assisted in the ribbon-cutting, held July 9.

The branch offers three teller windows, drive-in banking and night depository.

For kindergarten

Schools to test new tots

Youngsters in the Van Buren School District who missed the annual pre-kindergarten testing program earlier this summer, need not worry. They'll be tested later.

Bob Crane, director of special services in the school district, said youngsters who were not administered developmental tests to determine whether they need special help in education will be tested upon entering kindergarten in September.

"We've received calls from parents who want their children to be part of the program," Crane said. "I just want to assure them they need not worry."

The school district administers a battery of tests to determine whether children entering the kindergarten will have physical problems which may hinder their ability to learn. In addition, a developmental test is administered to determine what areas of education the children should be offered to assure that child a good chance to study in the first grade with success.

Citizens cite inflation as nation's top woe

Residents of Congressman William D. Ford's 15th District of Michigan consider inflation the most serious problem facing the country today, and favor Federal budget cuts in the areas of foreign aid and military spending.

They oppose either higher gasoline taxes or rationing and favor strict enforcement of 55 mile, speed limit to help reduce gasoline consumption.

These were among the results of Congressman Ford's annual questionnaire survey of his constituents, released recently.

The tabulations represent approximately 10,000 returns received by June 1. Replies received after that date also will be tabulated and included in the permanent record.

Other highlights of the survey results included:

- An overwhelming majority feel that inflation is a serious problem, but barely half favor a return to wage and price controls unless business profits and dividends also are regulated.
- Only 22 percent intend their next automobile to be a full-sized model; the majority plan to buy intermediates or compacts.
- Nearly 75 percent favor reducing or eliminating the 320,000 troops and 140,000 dependents stationed in Europe.

CAP cadet squadron posts busy 30 days

The Wayne-Romulus squadron of the Civil Air Patrol has been busy the past few weeks.

On June 25, the squadron commander, Lt. Joann Douglas, was presented with her nurse's pin by Col. Alan Creighton, group commander, and on July 2, Lt. Douglas presented five members with the awards.

CWO Robert Durham netted the Billy Mitchell Award. C-1st Jim Hunt received his Wright Brothers ribbon and was promoted to cadet sergeant. Cpt. Frank Kudla was awarded a bronze star for his recruiting ribbon, and Andrew Orgovan and Dolores Steward were presented with the senior member phase one training ribbons.

The squadron attended two parades on July 4, one in Romulus and the other in Belleville.

Throughout county

Enrollment shows 15,000-student drop

An expected enrollment drop of students in some Western Wayne County, coupled with decreases throughout the county threatens the jobs of approximately 600 Wayne County teachers, according to the figures released by Dr. William Simmons, superintendent of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Based on the actual enrollments in September of last year, the superintendents of the county's 36 local school districts have estimated expected enrollment for 1975-76 at about 3 percent. Total enrollment next year is expected to be 514,000 in the county, compared to 529,000 this year.

The largest number will be lost in Detroit school districts where enrollment is expected to drop from 261,000 to 253,000, a 3 percent loss.

The largest percentage loss is anticipated in the Allen Park, Garden City, and Crestwood school districts where it is expected to be a bout 8 percent.

Despite the general reduction in enrollment in the county, nine school districts are forecasting gains in enrollment. These include: Woodhaven, 12 percent; Huron, 8.6 percent; Plymouth, 5 percent; Romulus 2.8 percent; and Gibraltar, 4 percent.

"The drop in enrollment, which follows a pattern of several years, reflects a lower birth rate recorded during recent years," Dr. Simmons said. "The decreasing number of children in public schools can be expected to continue for several more years."

A number of school districts already have notified significant numbers of teachers that they may not be re-hired next fall. The early notice is required by state law, but some of the teachers who have been notified that their services are ending could be hired if enrollments are higher than expected and if budgets are adequate.

Among those districts pinkslipping teachers are: River Rouge, 45; Cherry Hill, 14; Grosse Pointe, 7; Harper Woods, 9; Westwood, 90; Dearborn, 37; Crestwood, 76; Lincoln Park, 150; Northville, 33; Livonia, 421; and Redford Union, 21.

The Wayne County Intermediate School District gathers statistical material from all of the 36 local school districts in the county and verifies these figures for required state reports.

It also coordinates all special education services for local school districts and provides consultative services in all phases of public education. In Western Wayne County, the estimated enrollment changes would be Van Buren Public School District 8,172 to 8,182; Romulus Community School District, 6,660 to 6,850; and Huron

School District, 3,681 to 4,000.

The Wayne-Westland Community Schools' enrollment will change from 23,153 to 22,800; the Plymouth Community School District from 12,656 to 13,300, the Garden City School District from 11,335 to 10,606, the Crestwood School District from 4,779 to 4,400, the Inkster School District from 4,434 to 4,200 the Cherry Hill School District from 4,219 to 3,951 and the Westwood School District from 4,000 to 3,829.

ON THE JOB — Two members of the medical staff discuss problems related to their work during a lull in the comings and goings at the Durham-Sumpter Family Medical Center. The Complex, located on Sumpter Road, three miles south of Belleville, provides some 10,000 residents township with needed health care. The new center was dedicated last month.

Bicentennial group sponsors 'float boat'

The Belleville Bicentennial Committee will be sponsoring "float boat" excursions on Belleville Lake this weekend.

Times will be from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday and from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

Boats will leave on the hour from the Hooten Dock and Doane's dock along Liberty Street and High Street on the lake.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children, 12 and under.

The approximate 45-minute tour will take visitors to all the interesting sites along Belleville Lake and will offer area residents who normally don't have a chance to get out on the lake an opportunity to obtain a different view of their community.

Tickets will be available at the docks and a special Bicentennial booth on Main Street.

Michigan in August: 'Come to the fairs'

Western Wayne County vacationers with a hankering to stay close to home this year will find the month of August in Michigan can be described only as "HiHo, Come to the Fair."

Forty-six events in all will be filling the 31 days of the month opening with the Ionia Free Fair on Aug. 1 and concluding with the annual Michigan State Fair on Aug. 22.

Some of the major fairs coming up are the Western Michigan Fair in Ludington, Aug. 12-16, Upper Peninsula State Fair in Escanaba, Aug. 12-17; Northwestern Michigan Fair in Traverse City, Aug. 25-30, and the Eastern Michigan Fair in Imlay City, Aug. 25-Sept. 1.

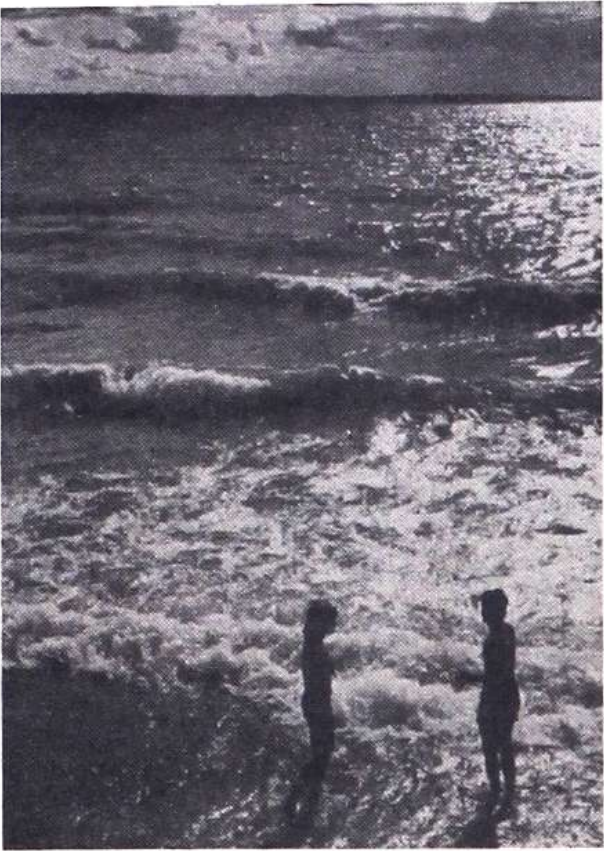

If you aren't a fair fan, don't despair because there are more than 60 other fun things happening during the month. Among them, of course, are Detroit's weekend Ethnic Festivals on the riverfront west of Cobo Hall. The August schedule begins with the Ukrainians on Aug. 1-3; followed by the Polish, Aug. 8-10; the Scandinavian Festival, Aug. 15-17; Armenian Festival, Aug. 22-24; with the International Festival moving in for the finale, Aug. 29-Sept. 1.

The citizens of Greenville have extended a robust "Velkommen" to the 11th annual Danish Festival, Aug. 15-17. Among the events scheduled are the Fairy Tale Parade, a Danish Tavern and Smorgasbord, strolling bands, canoe races and a variety of other festive fare for all the family.

Those looking for a little nostalgia will find more than one spot to head for. Leading the list is the Old Time Summer Festival at Greenfield Village, which continues through Aug. 31 complete with Doc Bryson's Medicine Show, Lincoln-Douglas debates and trips aboard the paddle-wheel steamboat, Suwanee. On the shores of Little Traverse Bay at Harbor Springs, Drum and Bugle Competition will be the order of the day Aug. 2 in Ottawa Stadium. Gladwin County will be recalling some memories Aug. 3-9 as they celebrate their 100th birthday at Gladwin. The same holds true for Roscommon County as they celebrate their centennial year Aug. 8-9 at Houghton Lake.

On the sports front, the 1975 AAU National Senior Outdoor Synchronized Swimming Championships will be held at Michigan State University Aug. 1-7. More than 500 competitors from the United States, as well as guests from several foreign countries, will be participating in this highly competitive girls athletic sport of water gymnastics. Aug. 2-10 the action moves from the pool to the net and the National Boys 16-18 Tennis Championship at Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo.

Something very special will be happening for some very special people when Central Michigan University plays host to the International Special Olympics, Aug. 7-9 at Mt. Pleasant. The games are "international" because the participants will represent all 50 of the United States, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries. They are STATE'S BEAUTY — Summer vacationers will find their home state has everything from fairs to fun and plenty of water in between to offer throughout the month of August. For those with a hankering for quiet moments and an ever changing scene, try a walk along one of the shorelines of the Great Lakes, then sample sunset Michigan-style.

"special" because the 3,000 athletes competing are mentally retarded.

Still on the sports scene, the Midwestern Council of Sports Car Clubs have races scheduled for Aug. 9-10 at Grattan International Speedway, Grattan. On the same dates, another group of enthusiasts will be "teeing up" for the Northern Michigan Open Golf Tournament at the Cheboygan Golf and Country Club in Cheboygan. There still will be another type of competition Aug. 17 as paddlers put forth their best in the Pere Marquette River Canoe Race from Scottville to Ludington. And on Aug. 30-31 it's the Eastern National Drag Boat Races at Holloway Reservoir Regional Park near Flint.

August has its share of annual Michigan favorites too, such as the Upper Peninsula Championship Rodeo, Iron River and the Top of Michigan Aquathon on the Cheboygan River, Cheboygan, both set for Aug. 2-3. Then there's the Paul Bunyan Festival in Oscoda, Aug. 15-18; Ausable River Longboat Regatta from Grayling to Stephan Bridge, Aug. 17; the Magic Get Together in Colon, Aug. 20-23; Melon Festival in Howell, Aug. 22-24; Venetian Parade in Grand Haven, Aug. 23; and the Michigan Peach Festival at Romeo, Aug. 29-Sept. 1.

In the area of arts, crafts, and antiques, the Tawas Bay Waterfront Arts and Crafts Festival sets up shop Aug. 2-3 at Tawas City. You can browse the Bargain Basement Arts and Crafts Fair, Aug. 8-9 at Grand Haven and look over the offerings of the Art and Sculpture Festival, Aug. 15-17, on Mackinac Island.

Junk or jewel? It all depends on how you feel about the remnants of years gone by, commonly referred to as antiques. For those who are attracted by such things as pie safes, "thunder mugs," cherry pitters and Cupie dolls there's the Antiques Market, Aug. 10, in the Springfield-Oaks County Park Building in Davisburg and an Antique Show at the Community Center in Grand Haven, Aug. 14-16.

Michigan has it all together when it comes to the things that make a vacation a relaxing, enjoyable and memorable occasion. Whether it's a fair, an art show, a sunset stroll along one of four Great Lakes beaches or waiting for feisty panfish to tug at your line, it's all here along with history and music, fresh air and green forests. Try a little Michigan in August, for the sheer pleasure of it.

For a complete listing of what's happening in Michigan, in August, write for a free copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events to the Michigan Travel Commission, 300 South Capitol Avenue, Lansing 48913.

In teacher strikes

Bill opens door to sympathy walkouts

By DALE GOWING
Of The Enterprise-Roman Staff

As state law now stands, no where does it say that Michigan public school teachers have to be in the classroom at least 170 days per school year.

That, in essence, opens the door to sympathy strikes by teachers in support of other striking teachers, and puts the entire school year in the state in peril, says State Sen. William Faust (D-Westland).

Faust reluctantly joined the Senate Democratic majority Wednesday in passing a revised teacher strike bill, different from an earlier House version, but nonetheless strikingly similar.

The new bill, which must pass the House, then be endorsed by Gov. William

Milliken to become law, allows strikes for a maximum of four weeks, with loss of salary in the third and fourth weeks by cutting the school year to 170 days.

The House version permitted strikes for up to five weeks.

The House now is wrestling with the bill, which likely will be vetoed by Milliken because of its similarity to the original House bill — which he opposed.

But that's not what the Senate is anticipating. Faust and his colleagues feel strongly that some strike legislation — even if it isn't the best — is necessary, and that in the end, Milliken will agree and sign the measure into law.

"Without a bill and with the possibility that with the Crestwood firing (of striking teacher), there might be a rash of sympathy strikes and there would be absolutely no mechanism to deal with these strikes this fall," Faust said. Wayne-Westland district, for example, the law would insure that those teachers wouldn't strike in sympathy of other teachers.

"This new legislation says that if students don't get 170 days of instruction, that is not in the public interest."

So the courts could order binding arbitration and order the teachers back to work. If they didn't go back, they could be cited for contempt.

As the law now stands, teachers strikes are illegal, but nothing is spelled out as to what the penalties are in the event of strikes.

"There is nothing now to prevent a sympathy strike," Faust continued. "Nothing says teachers must teach 170 days. Of course, the law does say that if students are not taught 180 days there is a loss in state aid to the district."

Faust was "reluctant" to vote for the new Senate measure because he had supported the view that teachers should be penalized from the first day of a strike.

Bill would aid in unit growth of SEMCOG

A bill, introduced in the State House of Representatives, would replace the present voluntary nature of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) with a formal and permanent structure and an elected governing board.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. William R. Ryan, House Urban Affairs Committee chairman, would take away the choice member governments now have to accept or reject SEMCOG decisions.

SEMCOG is a voluntary association of governments, composed of elected officials from more than 100 communities in southeast Michigan. SEMCOG develops and coordinates region-wide planning for transportation, land use, recreation and open space, water supply, sewage disposal, storm drainage, housing and criminal justice.

Under the provisions of the bill, SEMCOG would be responsible for drafting a permanent charter to assist more effective cooperation between Detroit metropolitan area governments.

During this 3-year process, SEMCOG would build a 41-member governing body. The citizens of regions within SEMCOG would elect a chairman and 20 members. Local officials would elect the remaining members.

"There is too much of an overall hodgepodge," Ryan said. "SEMCOG just can't do as good a job as a more structured operation."

"This bill would serve to initiate much-needed dialogue and discussion on how we should design an effective decision making process."

The legislation is patterned after a proposal made in 1974 by a private non-profit Detroit research group, Ryan said.

"The human needs of five million citizens in metropolitan Detroit require that SEMCOG-like organization have sufficient effectiveness to address those problems that are simply beyond the capacity of individual units of local governments to solve," Ryan added.

He said the House Urban Affairs Committee will begin extensive public hearings on the proposed bill in the fall.

ATTENTION FELLOW ROMULUS CITIZENS!

Suggestions are being made pertaining to Romulus and its citizens, but carrying out these ideas takes money.

RESULT

...A HEAVIER TAX!

Most taxpayers feel that they are paying all they can manage now and though they like improvements they cannot necessarily afford to pay for them.

I believe that as an operating principle, we should utilize monies now available. IF THERE ARE ANY, take advantage of carefully screened Federal subsidies, and proceed with caution in regard to levying additional taxes for things that are nice to have but are expensive to pay for.

Senate ponders fate of political reform bill

By HENRY CANTIN
Of The Enterprise-Roman Staff

What reportedly is the first comprehensive campaign reform bill in the country has passed the Michigan House of Representatives and has been sent to the Senate Committee on Municipalities and Elections for approval.

The new piece of political reform legislation — known as House Bill 5250 — was adopted by the State House in an amended form. Approximately 160 amendments of which 135 were technical in nature were added to the original bill, said State Rep. John F. Markes (D-Westland) one of seven co-sponsors of the legislation.

"The campaign reform bill, which passed the House of Representatives, contains great strength and will go a long way toward assuring state voters that elections here will be conducted in an open and honest manner," Markes said.

The main provisions of the bill are its ceilings on campaign donations, the multiple reporting requirements and the public disclosure provisions.

The House Policy Committee, chaired by Rep. Markes conducted almost daily working sessions of the bill prior to final passage by the State House. The committee at its Hearings considered about 300 suggested changes in the bill's original provisions.

"Although the bill is a compromise between what Common Cause originally had wanted and what elected officials would prefer, it still has great merit, and, as approved, probably will be the most far-reaching and first comprehensive political reform measure in the country," he added.

Some sections of the proposed bill had received objections from local officials, especially Section 132.

This section contains disclosure of sources of income, real property holdings and business affiliations for city managers, mayors, village presidents, members of City Council and village governing bodies, zoning and planning commissions and other boards and commissions set up by government bodies.

Local officials in objecting to some sections of the House Bill felt that its requirements might eliminate or reduce the volunteers who offer their time and efforts in the service on various board and commissions.

The bill, as adopted by the State House, not only retains provisions of Section 132, but also is directed at lobbying activities, campaign contributions and public funding of candidates in Michigan gubernatorial race and elections on all levels of government.

"We are not asking for anything that is unreasonable," Markes said. "We are establishing the public's right to know. This piece of legislation is a move toward good and better government."

"The measure not only can benefit the residents of this state, but can serve as a model of reform for the rest of the nation."

The lawmaker said the Senate has been informed of results of hearings before the House Policy Committee, as well as considerations and actions taken by that committee.

Centers meet needs of working families

With the economic crunch touching on almost everyone in Western Wayne County, health care may be the last item in a tight budget to receive any attention.

But in an effort to meet the needs of working families, the Wayne County Health Department's Eloise Health Center now is open continuously from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesdays.

Appointments are not necessary for the free clinics and the services offered include routine inoculations against childhood diseases, venereal disease testing and treatment. And for travelers the center provides overseas immunizations for minimal fees.

In addition to the Eloise Center, located on Merriman Road in Westland, the Health Department operates clinics throughout Wayne County including the Inkster Child Care Center, Smith Chapel, 3505 Walnut; the Sumpter Child Care Center, 24101 Sumpter Road, one center at St. Paul Presbyterian Church, 3702 Abbott, Livonia, and at West Mound Methodist Church, 22395 Eureka Road, Taylor.

Immunizations are available at the Eloise Health Center, in Livonia and Taylor, while Detroit

Maternity and Infant Care (DMIC)-Preschool, School Aged and Adolescent (PRESCAD), Project, offering a comprehensive and continuing health care program for expectant mothers and children under 21 years of age is available at the Inkster and Sumpter centers and Wayne County General Hospital.

The Inkster, Taylor and Sumpter sites also are involved in family planning clinics which offer free family planning services, including physical examinations and birth control supplies.

The Eloise clinic is the only center locally providing tuberculosis clinics. Free chest X rays and tuberculin skin tests for the detection of the disease are available as are food handler cards for employment for a fee of $3.

The clinic also is the only local center where confidential examination, treatment and followups of venereal disease are available. Minors can be treated legally for the disease without parental consent.

The Eloise center can be reached at 274-2800, while the Sumpter center can be contacted at 722-2410, the Inkster center at 722-2410, the Taylor location at 274-2800 or 721-0200, and the Livonia site at 274-2800.

Northwest L.P.: Tour for a king

An island that once was a monarchy, a castle where minstrels stroll and the crown jewel of Michigan's lakeshore scenery all add up to a tour fit for a king in the northwest Lower Peninsula.

This suggested summer vacation encompasses a 47-mile drive from Cross Village to Charlevoix plus a ferry ride from Charlevoix to Beaver Island. Sight-seers can enjoy the region's highlights in a weekend, but, if ambient resort life is appealing, a week or two or even longer can be pleasantly spent in this corner of the state.

Undoubtedly one of the most beautiful trips in Michigan is the 20 miles of highway along Lake Michigan and Little Traverse Bay from Cross Village to Harbor Springs. Called the Lake Shore Scenic Drive, this stretch of M-131 wanders through virgin forests and across high bluffs with the stunning lakeshore a constant companion. For photographers, it's a delight.

Lake Shore Drive from Cross Village originally was an Indian footpath, and to this day much of Michigan's Indian heritage lingers in the area.

At Cross Village, the Great Lakes Indian Museum features a distinctive collection of handicrafts, religious items and war regalia from several North American tribes, including the Ottawas, Chippewas and Potawatomis of Michigan. On sale are such handmade Indian craft items as jewelry, dolls, canoes and tepees. Open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. through Labor Day, the museum charges a 50-cent admission for adults and 25 cents for children.

An Indian burial ground and wood-pegged log cabins from the days of early settlers can be seen at Middle Village, midway between Cross Village and Harbor Springs. Still more Indian artifacts are on view at Harbor Springs' Chief Blackbird Museum, open from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. and from 1 to 5 p.m. daily through Labor Day during the summer. There is no admission charge.

While cottages, specialty shops and hotels add to the charm of these three towns, the region's major resort center is Petoskey. Long the playground of the rich and super-rich, Petoskey is the summer home of many exclusive Florida resort shops and one of the few towns of 7,000 to boast a Sak's Fifth Avenue.

Along with Paris fashions and expensive objects d'art from around the world, Petoskey offers many unusual items priced for economy-class travelers. Likewise, restaurants, hotels and motels in and near Petoskey cater to the gamut of vacation budgets.

One of Michigan's most unusual tourist attractions — Castle Farms — is located near Charlevoix. Built in 1918 by a Chicago department store tycoon, this French chateau-inspired structure once served as a cattle barn. Closed for several years, it was sold and revamped into a "castle" in the early 1960s.

More eccentric than authentic, Castle Farms is a rambling complex of stone, medieval style-buildings, complete with courtyards, fountains, gardens and replicas of armor. The attraction also boasts an ice cream parlor, a tavern, sandwich shops and several boutiques. There is a nominal admission charge.

Although the route from Cross Village to Charlevoix offers much for campers, fishermen and boaters, outdoors enthusiasts will want to visit Beaver Island. Located 25 miles northwest of Charlevoix, the island can be reached by car ferry, Beaver Islander, which makes round trips daily from Charlevoix. A charter flying service also makes runs to the island from Harbor Springs and Charlevoix.

Beaver Island's scenic quietude is in marked contrast to the island's turbulent history, which includes regicide and mass arson.

Belleville is alive in state tourney

By TOM MOORADIAN
Ent.-Roman Sports Editor

Two impressive victories have kept Belleville alive in the race for the state Babe Ruth Baseball championship.

Belleville defeated host Port Huron 6-2 after outting Westland 3-2 in eight innings to earn a return trip later this week to Port Huron.

The Port Huron state tournament is for players 13-years of age.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPS — Posting a perfect 9-0 record, the Romulus Jaycees captured the District K-3 Softball Championship last week. Admiring the first place trophy are Fred Coleman (from left), the team's leading hitter; Andy Miller, vice-president of the Jaycees, and Harold Hoffer, team manager. It was the first time that the Jaycees had won the title. — The Ent.-Roman photo.

passed ball, an error and a pair of walks to Eric Bailey and Carl Jennings gave Belleville its second run.

In the fourth Bailey was safe on an error, Jennings walked and Bailey, who reached third on an error scored on a passed ball.

Pavelka led off the fifth with a home run — the second of the tournament — then Michael Stoelton singled. He went to third on Reddick's double and when Daroci walked, Bailey stepped to the plate with the bases loaded and he came through with a 2-run single.

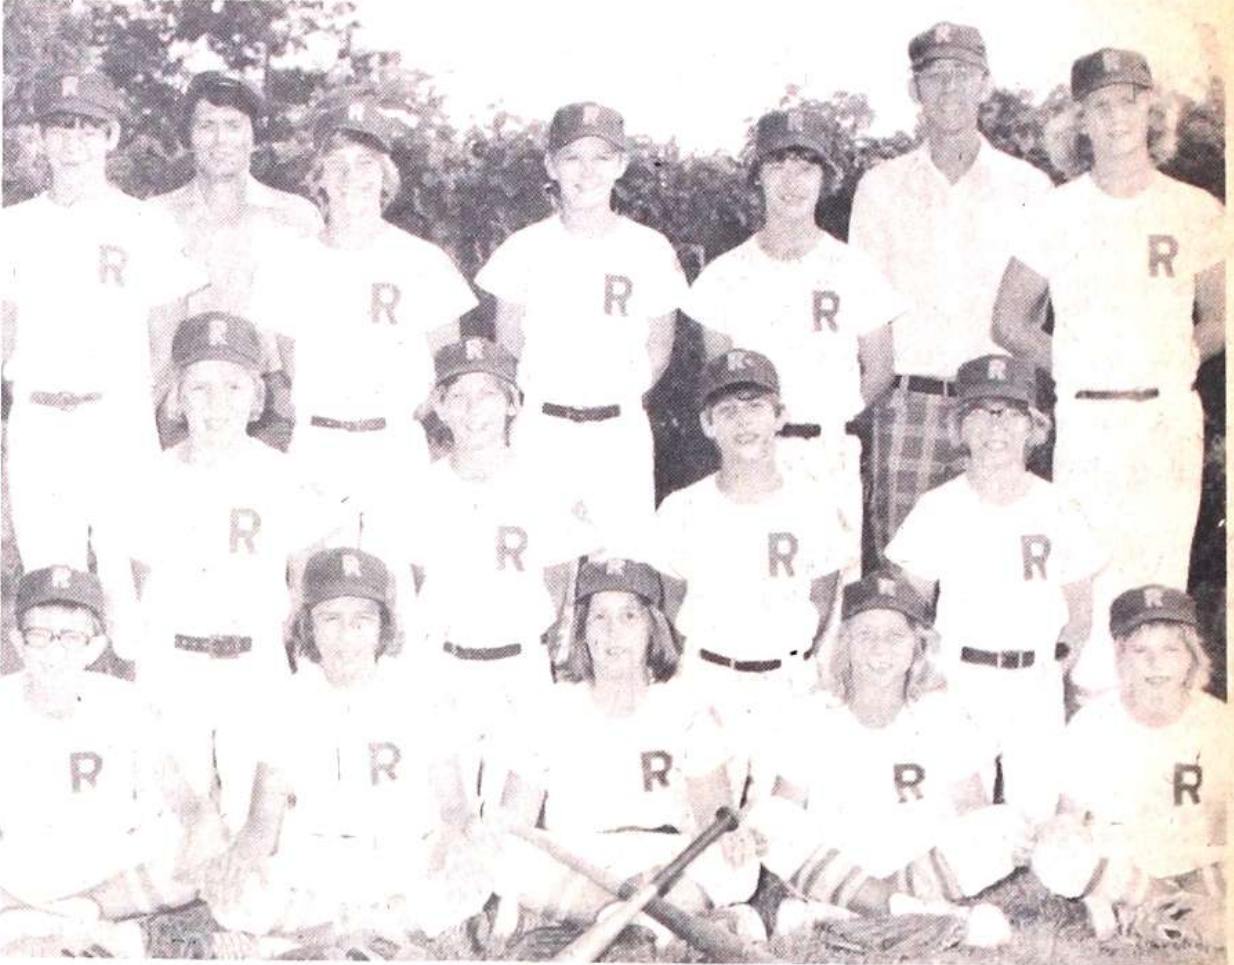

An eighth inning home run by Fry settled the issue between Westland and Belleville, giving Pavelka his second win of the tournament.

Pavelka fanned nine, walked four and was touched for seven hits.

Stoelton scored the first run of the game when he doubled in the fourth and, after two were out, Bailey hit a sharp grounder which was muffed, leading to the run.

In the Belleville fifth, Fry walked and moved to second when Jennings singled, then Pavelka aided his own cause with a 2-run double.

The Westlanders tied it up in the sixth and the two teams had to fight it out in extra innings until Fry came up with his game-winning homer in the eighth.

South's bid for title ends

Romulus South's bid for a District 5 Little League Baseball Championship ended over the weekend as host Lincoln Park eliminated the visitors 3-2 in the finals.

DeWayne Parker gave up five hits, struck out four and was charged with the loss.

Romulus drew first blood as Ken Bird opened the game with a fly ball to right that was lost in the sun and fell in for a triple.

Then a passed ball, allowed Bird to race from third with the first run. Ray Mansfield provided the losers with the final run when he singled to start the fifth and scored on Mark Boling's double.

Lincoln Park put a couple of runs on the scoreboard thanks to two doubles that hit the chalk on the third baseline. The hosts tied the game in the fifth inning and went ahead with a single run in the third.

After Romulus had tied it up in the top of the fifth, the Parkers scored what proved to be the winning run in the bottom of that frame.

Romulus launched the series with an impressive 6-2 triumph over a tough Taylor Northwest team. Marty Knight's 3-hitter did the trick.

Knight was working on a no-hitter when Taylor suddenly erupted for three hits and two runs in the final frame.

Romulus broke through for four runs in the second innings as Ray Mansfield singled, moved to second when Boling walked and was doubled home by Mike Sampson.

In Connie Mack race

Huron upsets Wayne II

Huron may not have a shot at the Connie Mack Baseball title, but Coach Ron Smith's ball club had a lot to say about which team will wear the crown by upsetting previously undefeated Wayne II, 6-5.

The victory moves Huron within one game of evening up its record. They're 3-4 on the season.

Huron broke a 5-all deadlock in the bottom of the seventh with an earned run. Mike Michling started for the winners and pitched 4 and two-thirds innings before Lonnie Fater took over and finished up. Fater tossed the final 2 and one-third innings and got credit for the win. Wayne had a 5-2 advantage after 5 innings before Huron bats came alive. Led by Russ Ikerd, who had a couple of run-scoring singles and Jeff Gill who tripled and singled, Huron managed to stun the previously undefeated Wayne team.

Michling and Craig Beattie also chipped in with run-scoring singles.

Don Canfield started for Wayne and worked the first four innings before loser Bob Vojtkofsky took over. Vojtkofsky was knocked around for four runs on four hits, while he fanned two and walked three.

Huron exploded for seven runs in the second inning, then hung on to edge Inkster 11-10 as Fater pitched an 8-hitter to get credit for the victory. The Huron hurler struck out 10 and walked 10 and helped his cause with three singles.

Gill also had a good day at the plate as he drove in three runs on two singles and a double. Keith Johnson drilled a pair of singles off of loser Reggie Malone who allowed 11 runs on 10 hits.

Bill Crews foiled Huron's attempt to stop Wayne I's title express as the Wayne Memorial junior hammered a run-scoring single in the bottom of the seventh to score what proved to be the winning run in a 2-1 victory.

Fater, who gave up five hits, was charged with the loss. He whiffed 12 Wayne batters and walked five. The Huron pitcher also picked up two of the five hits his team collected off of winner Bob Spaw. Spaw also gave up harmless singles to Beattie, Jim Doyle and Michling.

How to have a great family vacation without going too far.

Stay right in your own backyard. Chances are, there are plenty of exciting things to do as a family that aren't that far away. Like visiting a national park. Go fishing. Or camping. Or taking a short trip to the nearest big city or point of interest. And remember. If you're a little short of money for your vacation, see HFC about a Traveloan. You may borrow up to $1500 from Household Finance to pay for your next family vacation. And that'll go a long way. Even if you don't.

League eyes champs

By TOM MOORADIAN
Ent-Roman Sports Editor

At the halfway point, the Romulus Women's Softball League is looking for the champs.

And if one doesn't step forward, it appears that post-season playoffs will be needed to decide the championships. However, in the West the Rookies looked good as it overpowered the Hustlers 27-6. Mary Lawson led the winners with five hits and eight RBI's. Teammate Wendy Woodlet chipped in five hits and also had four runs batted in, while Pat Hamm and Sally Carroll paced the losers with four hits apiece.

Nancy Burton's unassisted double play highlighted the defense. Best efforts by the Hustlers were turned in by Kelly Margreat who homered and also had two singles. Tammy Skeno and Kathy Kewek split four hits between them.

Darkness stopped a well-played game between the Tarantulas and the Denim Dolls who had to settle for a 16-all tie.

Tammy Kitchers blasted a home run, triple and singled for the Dolls. Teammates Debbie Shallow, who also homered and collected three RBI's, and Lynn Montgomery, with a triple and three RBI's, also helped the Dolls. Judy Mullens turned in a double and chased home two runs.

The Tarantulas received outstanding hitting performance from Cindy Kramer and Marriann Oaks who each had grand slams in the fifth inning. Denise Gabany accounted for three hits.

The Bleepers had little trouble with the SWAT as it muscled its way past them 9-5. The Bleepers got four hits from Lou Kalis while Bernie Daly socked three and Connie McGee laced two doubles.

Good efforts were turned in from Cathy Ward, with four hits — one a triple — Candy Griffin, with three hits, and Jackie Boyd, and Andrea Melchie, with two each.

The Kerrettes split a doubleheader, beating the Bleepers 14-3 thanks to the bats of Maria Franklin, Melanie Franklin, Anita Pincham and Donna Thompson.

Top hitters for the losers were Marie Wehrle and Lou Kalis who each had three.

But the Kerrettes couldn't find the winning combination against a well-coached 2001 team that won a lopsided victory thanks to Rose Silvey, Sharon Howie, Cindy Crawford and Nancy Gent's hitting. Sharon Howie also connected for a home run.

Best efforts from the Kerrettes came from Betty Burns, Maria Franklin, Vickie Burns and Gloria Casey.

The 69'ers turned back the Euphoria as Sandie Sandlin pounded out a home run and teammates Carol Casmer, Marion Seymour and Debbie DePoole each had four hits.

Pat Suski also played an excellent defensive game at shortstop.

Euphoria's Edith Stockdale had four hits. Teammates Chery Abdo checked in with three and Rhonda Bartley finished up with two hits.

Chocolate City ripped the Foul Balls 26-9. Warren, Summers and Casey each had four hits for the winners.

Cheryl Sanders latched on to a home run and Darelene May socked a triple and Kathy DeHarte picked up two hits for the losers.

In the East Division, the Spirit of '76 edged the Bullshirts 13-12. Sylvia Dubinsky, Angie Hicks and Peggy Summerfield provided the key hits for the winners, each with three. Sylvia also homered.

Carol Zietz had a homer and three hits for the losers who also received outstanding hitting from Carol Fehmie and Pearl Hall who had four and three hits, respectively.

The Airline Bombers shook up the Shakers 17-12. Patty Sypula had a homer for the Bombers while Theresa Byrd, Debbie Sanders and Janet Slater each had key hits for the winners.

Kathy Mullen, who homered, Maria Huston, with 2 RBI's and Cindy

Groh, with three RBI's, led the loser's attack.

The Kel-Joys marched past the Buzz Troop 7-5 as Kathie Smith laced three hits for the winners. She was aided by Brenda Sparkman, Sharon Treder and Cheryl Lynn who each turned in with a pair of singles.

The Electric Warriors were awarded a victory via a forfeit when Our Gang failed to field a complete team.

RAC planning ball season; Program set

The Romulus Athletic Club (RAC) has started the wheels turning for the 1975 Little League football season.

The club will hold its second annual Family Night at the Romulus City Hall Community Room at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 8. Prior to the Family night, there will be a supplementary football registration for all players, ages nine through 13 who failed to sign up.

The additional registration will begin at 5 p.m. and conclude at 7:30 p.m.

Players who wish to sign up during the registration also must bring with them a physical examination certificate from their family doctor.

There is a $10 registration fee per family. All new RAC players also must have proof of date of birth (birth certificate) when registering.

During the Family Night meeting, tickets will be sold for the RAC's third annual dance which is set for Sept. 5 from 8 p.m. until 1 p.m. Donations are $5 per person.

The agenda for the Family Night also will include football rules and regulations, dates and places of games and purchase of equipment.

The RAC fields three junior football teams — freshmen, junior varsity and varsity teams — that compete in the Western Suburban Junior Football League.

The conference is made up of teams from Westland, Garden City, Ypsilanti, Northville and Belleville.

If a player doesn't reside in any of the mentioned cities, he isn't eligible to register or play in the league. Further information about the RAC or the conference may be obtained by calling Gerald Gemmell, president of the Romulus Athletic Club, (326-0821).

6-year-old gets first big 'prize'

Six-year-old David Clemens was disappointed recently when he went north on a fishing trip and returned empty handed. So, David tried his luck while visiting his grandmother in Belleville. The young angler hauled in an 11-inch small-mouth bass from Belleville Lake. It was his first prize.

Will he mount his trophy?

"No," he said. "Bass tastes better on the plate than on the mantle."

Belleville golfer shoots hole-in-1

A seasoned Belleville golfer unwrapped an early birthday gift. Robert M. Horste, who was 55 recently, shot his third hole-in-1, aching the 201-yard, nine hole at Plum Hollow Golf Course. He used a 2-iron for the superb drive.

Horste, reluctant to talk about the ace — his third in 25 years of golfing — modestly said: "There's not much I really can say. I was pretty lucky, I guess."

Horste finished the day carding an 80. Also in the foursome were Gill Ruicci, Dennis Johnson and brother, Richard.

The hole-in-1 was Horste's third. He shot his first 10 years at Shady Hollow and three years ago came up with one at Carleton Glen.

Real Realty clinches South championship

Real Realty scored its eighth consecutive Little League victory to clinch the 1975 Romulus South championship.

The second place teams, Polkadot Party and Commercial Carriers, were far behind the pacesetters. The runners-up have won only two of five starts.

In its annual classic, South beat North 15-5 as Mark Pokersinski was the winning pitcher. He handed the job over to Kevin Hernandez after South had built a 5-0 lead.

Mike McCloskey drilled a 2-run home run for one of his three hits; while Mike Marsiglia also homered and Johnny Bell went 3-for-4.

McCloskey was in perfect form. He pitched a no-hitter as the newly-crowned champs riddled Baum's 6-2. McCloskey also starred at the plate.

AUTO FACTS

by Jr. Kosin

If you are stuck in traffic, one of the most typical and difficult problems that can occur in your car, is that the cooling system may become overworked. This will cause the temperature light in your car to come on. If the light comes on, immediately turn on the heater and turn off the air conditioner. Place the transmission in neutral and run the engine at moderately high speed. If the warning light does not go out in a few minutes, however, pull off the road, stop the engine so that it does not overheat any further.

If you are getting ready to give your car a "going over," stop at KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan, Inkster, for the parts and accessories you need. We specialize in parts for all foreign and domestic cars. Our experienced and knowledgeable personnel gives fast, friendly and expert counter service. In our complete machine shop, expert machinists do all kinds of repair service including turning brake drums, valve work and engine rebuilding. Remember, we are the "House of a Million Parts" — whatever you need for your car, we have it! Call us at 563-3894. We are open daily until 8 P.M., Saturdays until 5 P.M.

AUTO FACT:
A fully charged battery is capable of running an engine for two to four hours with headlights and other accessories off.

Weekend festival set at St. Anthony's

This is the weekend: The 3-day event for which St. Anthony's parishioners have been preparing for months — the church festival.

Co-chaired by Mary Ann Emerson and Gary Sampson, the festivities will be highlighted by two meals: a spaghetti dinner from 4 to 7 p.m. Saturday and a chicken dinner from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. the following day.

A special family plan ticket at $10 is being offered for the spaghetti menu. Otherwise the fee will be $2.25 for adults, $1.25 for children and free to those under 5 years of age.

Also very reasonably priced for this day of the inflated dollar are tickets for Sunday's chicken dinner. Adults will cost $2.50, children $1.50 and again, will be free to those under 5. Master minding the kitchen offerings are Lucille Remus, Agnes Cook and Glenn and Gerry Lehman.

The program will be kicked off at 5 p.m. Friday when rides, games, a casino and refreshments will be available.

The same lineup, with the addition of bingo games, will be held from 12 to 10 p.m. Saturday. On Sunday, the hours will be 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. during which the big drawing for $4,500 in prizes will be held. Tickets are still available from any member of the church for $1 each and will be good for a first prize of $2,500; second, $1,000; third, $500; and five prizes of $100 each.

Attractions under the "big top" will include a dunk tank operated by the Boy Scouts, a country store under the direction of Sharon Collins and the Mothers Club, a merchant's booth with Lucille Remus in charge, and a doll corner chaired by Helen Sietz.

There will be plenty to amuse the younger set including a duck pond and shuffle board handled by G.

Warren and Pat Lorbeske, respectively. Others handling children's games will be Betty Tontalo, bumper car; Frank Lemanski, cork shoot; Wanda Elden, hooligan, and S. Bowles, bear toss.

Bingo tables will be manned by Nick Nehez, the refreshment stand will be hosted by Carol Stypelkoski and the church ushers will tend bar.

Others chairing various games will be John Chudzinski, pool shark; L. Herring, instant bingo; J. Monforton, roll-a-score, and Sisters of St. Joseph, silver dollars.

The casino will be managed by Bill Bowles, Hugh McLean and E. Lauth.

The community is invited to attend the annual festival which is being held on the church grounds behind St. Anthony's Church on W. Columbia Avenue in Belleville.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL KRYSYNIAK

Holy Redeemer Church site of Krystyniak-Grech vows

After honeymooning for two weeks on the island of Aruba and in northern Michigan, the newly wed Michael Krystyniak has taken up residence at 1080 Morrell, Apt. 7, Detroit.

Jean Grech, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Grech of 1495 Ferdinand, Detroit, became Mrs. Krystyniak in a recent 3 p.m. ceremony at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Detroit.

Some 200 relatives and friends witnessed the June 21 nuptial Mass celebrated by The Rev. Alex Steinmiller, The Rev. John Phelps and The Rev. William Bonnici. The couple wrote their own vows and repeated them before an altar appointed with white gladiolas and yellow mums.

Organist was Richard Nycz of Detroit. Sister Phillis Pacquette of Windsor, Ont. accompanied herself on the guitar as she sang "Sunrise, Sunset," "Wherever You Go" and "Song of Joy."

Escorted to the sanctuary by her father, Jean appeared in a gown of bridal taffeta designed with long organza sleeves on the little fitted bodice. Cluney lace framed the square neckline, edged the A-line skirt and banded the cathedral length veil which was caught to a Camelot cap of matching lace.

Made by the bride's mother, the dress and veil were complimented by a bouquet of yellow baby roses and baby's breath accented with tendrils of green ivy.

As has become the tradition in the Krystyniak family, Jean wore the cross that Michael's dad had given his bride on their wedding day.

A close friend of the bride, Marcia Wojcik of Detroit, was chosen to be maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth Longley of Melvindale; Theresa Krystyniak of Belleville, the bridegroom's sister, and Barbara Melnik of Detroit.

Except for the color of their picture hats, the quartet was identically dressed in semi-sheer peach and yellow print frocks styled with V-necklines and puffed sleeves. The honor attendant was distinguished by her mint green hat traced with deeper green ribbon while the others wore white hats with the same trim. Their bouquets were comprised of yellow roses and baby's breath tied with green and yellow ribbon.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krystyniak of 48730 Judd Road, Belleville, asked Tom Melcher of Detroit to be best man. Groomsman were Larry Judge Jr. of St. Louis, Mo.; Pat O'Brien of Detroit and Mark Grech of Detroit, the bride's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grech donned a long aqua gown of embroidered silk brought from Japan by her son-in-law. Her wrist corsage was made of white baby roses and aqua-tinted carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose to wear a formal gown of mint green polyester. She too, wore a wrist corsage of white roses and carnations to match her dress.

The VFW Hall on Ecorse Road was reserved for the reception which followed.

Some 300 guests attended. A 1972 graduate of Holy Redeemer High School, the new Mrs. Krystyniak attended Wayne State University (WSU) and in the fall will be teaching remedial reading at Holy Redeemer School.

Her husband graduated from St. Joseph Preparatory College in Edgerton, Wisc. in 1972, attended Wayne State University and currently is employed at The Detroit Club.

The rehearsal dinner was given in Detroit by the bridegroom's parents.

Romulus couples welcome babies

A feminine touch has been added to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ackerman of Michael Street, Romulus, these mid-summer days. She's Tina Marie, the 7 lb. - 1/2 oz. baby who joined their family on July 17.

Born at Wayne County General Hospital, the infant is the couple's first daughter.

On hand to welcome their mother and new sister home were the three Ackerman boys, Brian 10;

Brandon, 9, and Joey, 6.

Their first child, a boy, was born July 18 to Michael and Cathy Radecki of 10008 Romaine, Romulus. The new heir, Steven Michael, weighed an even 8 lbs. on his arrival at the Dearborn Medical Center.

The new mother is the former Cathy McCaig, daughter of Arthur and Betty McCaig of Belleville. Edward and Lucille Radecki of Allen Park are the baby's paternal grandparents.

Musicians galore at Moomey's lawn party

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

When their invitations went out to friends and relatives, Diane and Larry Moomey billed their July 20 plans as a "Fun summertime garden party" to be held at their home on Merriman Road in Romulus.

Some 150 guests turned out for food, drink, music, swimming and lawn games. Entertainment, though, was the highlight of the afternoon with some 30 professional musicians and vocalists on hand to keep the party moving. The host, who plays the clarinet and saxophone throughout the metropolitan area, has at sometime or other been part of each group which attended.

There was even a professional square dance caller singing out his do-si-do's and allemande-lefts for the country dance fans. Everything from jazz to hoe-down was included in the plans with champion fiddler, Charlie Grimoldby of Westland, wielding the bow.

The Moomeys weekend houseguests, who gave their hosts a big hand with the party preparations, included Diane's aunt, Helen Ducommun of Largo, Fla. and the Dave Munschys and their married children of Lansing. Still others assisting were Diane's sister and brother-in-law, Vivian and Larry Jackson of Lake Orion.

Dozens of ears of corn were prepared in a huge iron cauldron on the lawn while a master chef took over the 70-pound roast beef which was among the goodies served.

The Moomey guest list included friends from Bloomfield Hills, Ferndale, Royal Oak, Birmingham, Pontiac, Livonia, Garden City, Wyandotte and Taylor.

Those attending from Romulus were Mayor and Mrs. Terry Troutt and daughter, the Jerry Kubiaks, Lorana Luebker, the Rex Maxwells, Richard Maxwells, Bill Cochran, the Bill Bilbrays and their daughters, the Homer Whites and their daughter and the Lee Taylors. The Jim Bengles represented Belleville at the all-day bash.

A baby shower, too

Not only did Diane Moomey entertain those many, many guests on Sunday but the day before (if you can imagine), she entertained some 50 women at a cradle shower for her daughter, Kathleen Benge of Belleville.

Umbrella tables were set up on the lawn for the 3 p.m. party and the group enjoyed a few baby theme games. When it came time for Kathleen to open her presents, she was seated in the gift from her parents, a rocking chair, which was placed on the deck so that all could see the "unveiling."

At the buffet luncheon which followed, the hostess was assisted by Vivian Jackson of Lake Orion.

The new heir is due sometime in October.

Shephards entertain

The presence of Grove and Iva Shephard of Boynton Beach, Fla. prompted the family get together which Art and Verdys Shephard hosted July 20 at their Elwell Road home. The "Sunshine State" visitors (Art's cousins) have been the Shephards' houseguests for three weeks.

The pot luck dinner also was occasion for celebrating the July birthdays in the clan, and there were five of them. Verdys came up with one of her pretty decorated cakes bearing the names of all the honorees.

The birthday gang included Iva Shephard; Jim Shephard of Belleville who was there with his wife Pat, and son Daryl; Pearl Jahncke of Ypsilanti whose husband, Dallas, also was there; Ivy Jahncke who drove in from Montrose with her husband, Richard; and Roger Ferguson whose family includes his wife Diane, son Leslie, and twins, Shawn and Shari.

Others enjoying swimming, lawn games, reminiscing and making cakes in pie irons over hot coals were the Ronald Jahncke and Jim Pryce families of Ypsilanti; the Rick Hutman family of Detroit and Brian Shephard and Nancy Ostrowski. Latecomers, just back from their vacation, were Fay and Mary Ferguson of Belleville, who brought the party to a total of 37 persons.

Shower for Patty

Patty Ritchie, who will become the bride of Mike Clark of Lansing on Aug. 9, was the guest of honor July 20 at a miscellaneous shower, given by her cousin, Joy Powers of Denton Road, Belleville.

Thirteen relatives and friends from Garden City, Ypsilanti and Belleville showered the bride-to-be with the many necessary items needed for setting up a home. Card bingo was played under the direction of Traci Horrocks and the group later took a turn around the buffet table. The luncheon was capped by chocolate fondue and a special cake iced in the peach and green bridal colors.

Patty, whose wedding is planned for Nichols Arboretum in Ann Arbor, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baylis Ritchie of Grove Road, Ypsilanti. She is a Belleville High School alumna and recent graduate of Michigan State University.

Her fiancé is the son of Norman Clark and Donna Clark, both of Piqua, Ohio.

She's busy sewing

The grandmother of a former Romulus girl is busy at the sewing machine and with needle and thread making the wedding gown and bridesmaids' outfits for her granddaughter's forthcoming wedding in Tennessee.

Taylor-Ford vows set for Aug. 23

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Alton Stone of Baxley, Ga., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Hattie Lou Taylor, to James Blaney Ford of Belleville. The bride-elect received her bachelor of science degree in mathematics education from the University of Georgia in 1971 and has taught in Athens and Baxley, Ga. She currently is a graduate student at the University of Georgia.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ford of Elwell Road, Belleville. The senior Mr. Ford is principal of Belleville High School.

The prospective bridegroom earned his bachelor of arts degree in history from the University of Michigan in 1968, was a pilot in the U.S. Air Force from 1968 to 1973 and currently is a student at the University of Georgia Law School.

The couple plan to be married Aug. 23 at the Graham United Methodist Church in Graham, Ga.

MISS TAYLOR

Eager Beavers receive guest treatment at Cascade Falls

The Eager Beavers of the Romulus Family and-Neighborhood Center recently drove to Jackson for a visit to the famous Cascade Falls. Arrangements were carefully made by the center's director, Geneva Clark, who was assisted in the planning by Marie Z. Byrd.

"Having a 1971 AAA tour guide, I considered we were well prepared to take the group," Mrs. Byrd said. "We left the center on time, enjoyed a pleasant drive along I-94 and, with no problems or trouble, found the place and even arrived very early."

"Sounds good, doesn't it? I lead the way until I realized there was a fee so, naturally, I slowed my pace and let Mrs. Clark take over."

When they learned there was a 90-cent admission charge per person they began to wonder where they could go at that time of the evening to entertain 15 people.

But Mrs. Byrd said she was tuned into the conversation taking place at the gate and heard snatches of "...boys and girls of various ages from Romulus who've been looking forward to...we are on a very limited budget..."

When the clerk turned to make a telephone call, she said, they all stood there with their fingers crossed and prayers on their lips. And when he hung up and said they were to be the Cascade's guests for the evening, the smiles broke out and the walk through the gate was at a very happy and brisk pace.

A snack lunch was served by the center's capable workers, Brenda Clark, Sue Majiarski, Pat Stephens, Andre Parson and William Anderson. Each child responsible for policing his own area.

Afterwards they climbed the long stairway to the top of the falls and later watched the colors change, playing a guessing game as to what color would appear next. Eager Beavers (EBs) in on the fun were Eric Butler, Penny Wooden, Teddy Workman, Connie Fisher, Robert Cahill and Keith and Kendra Immel. Still others were Bobby Brooks, Raymond Wilson, Roger Cobb, Raymond Farver, Lorraine Van Glahn, Jimmie Brooks and Latrice Wafer.

Convenience costly

In spite of the fast growing displays of convenience foods, cooking from scratch is not passe, and most often it saves money. Many consumer counselors advise serving homemade meals rather than relying on packaged or prepared dinner entrees in order to stretch the food dollar. Granted, there are some instances when the cost of a homemade product may exceed that of a convenience item, but not many. Speaking in terms of both food value and taste appeal as well as economy, nothing beats home cooking!

Laura Niemann of Barth Road in Romulus was asked to make the gowns for Melody White's marriage to Robert Sterling Keith which is scheduled for Aug. 30 at the Kingdom Hall Jehovah's Witnesses Church in Nashville. The bride-elect is the daughter of the former Gretchen Kline of Romulus.

Nancy is 'showered'

Lake in the Woods club house in Ypsilanti was the setting for the recent shower honoring August bride-elect, Nancy Lynn Gustavson. Two future bridesmaids, Cindy Susterka and Holly Englehart, both of Belleville, were co-hostesses at the party.

The 16 guests from Spokane, Wash., Dearborn, Ypsilanti, Jackson and Belleville were mostly friends of the future bridegroom, Barry Dean Susterka, and his parents, Don and Betts Susterka, formerly of Belleville and now of Ypsilanti.

Bingo was the evening entertainment followed by the gift presentation. Four-year old Tracy Lynn Gentle, who's to be flowergirl at her uncle's wedding, had the honor of assisting with the presents.

Gold and white appointments and a doll centerpiece were used for the buffet lunch which followed.

Nancy and Barry will be married Aug. 9 at the Boonton United Methodist Church in Boonton, N.J.

Dawn is honoree

Dawn Bruder will walk up the aisle of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville Saturday evening to become the bride of Alva Pluff after which they will be feted at a reception at the UAW Hall on Michigan Avenue.

Two recent showers given in honor of the bride-elect were both tagged "miscellaneous" by the party planners. The first on July 6 was held at the E. Rockwood home of Mary Cummings. Co-hostesses were Sandy Stevens of Belleville, Shirley Pluff of Zearleton and Monica Grabetz of S. Rockwood.

Relatives and friends of the prospective bridegroom (who is more familiarly known as "Butch") drove from Tipton, Carleton, Ypsilanti, Rockwood and Belleville for the afternoon festivities.

Following several wedding theme games, the bride-to-be opened her gifts which were arranged beneath a pastel parasol.

The 25 guests then were served a full course dinner.

Book nook

Learn to weave, make your own chess set

If you're one of those people who can't sit idly watching television or wasting time in any way, you should head for the Romulus Public Library at 1121 Wayne Road where there are hundreds of do-it-yourself and how-to books. For instance, one of the newest arrivals is a book on weaving and it includes everything from yarns, baskets, cloth and tapestry. Or how about making your own chess set if you're handy with tools? There's a brand new book out that's yours for the seeking. Interested in geography? Then the newest Rand McNally guide is just what you want. It'll guide you through all 34 national parks and is complete with illustrations. For those who just like to sit a while with a good book, there are just scads of fiction, non-fiction, biographies, cookbooks, you name it. The library's also a good place to sit and browse through the periodicals, magazines and reference works and a pleasant place to spend a hot summer day since it's refreshingly air conditioned. NON-FICTION "Weaving is fun; a Guide for Teachers, Children and Beginning Weavers" by Jean Wilson. The author includes chapters on the sources of yarn and the various processes used to transform yarns into fabric; basket weaving from original material to finished product; descriptions of many kinds of handwoven cloth, and one entitled "Learning by Doing."

"Make Your Own Chess Set" by David Carroll. Introduces the history of chess and chess pieces and gives instructions for making 25 different chess sets out of easily available materials.

"Rand McNally National Park Guide" by Michael Frome. A guide to all 34 national parks and reserves. FICTION

"The Underground Woman" by Kay Boyle. Athena Gregory, widow, college teacher and well-intentioned liberal is jailed for participation in a demonstration against the war in Vietnam. While in prison she comes to terms with herself and gains the strength to endure her alienation from her youngest daughter, a member of a Charles Manson-like commune.

"The Kentucky Trace" by Harriette Arnow. Leslie Collins returns from fighting in the Revolutionary War to find his family gone. He pursues the only clue he has down the Kentucky Trace.

"The Season of Danger" by Rosemary Gatenby. A reporter suspects that a famous novelist is being held prisoner by his own guards on his own estate.

"A Glimpse of Paradise" by Arlene Hale. Heather is overwhelmed by the responsibility for her family when her mother dies and her father inexplicably disappears.

"The Spell of Time" by Meyer Levin. As part of a research project, a professor of biochemistry and a young American student change roles. "Gideon's Fog" by J.J. Marrie. During one of London's famous fogs, Gideon stops to help some people and stumbles on to a murder case. "The Physicians" by Henry Denker. A young doctor is sued for malpractice by the town's richest man when it appears his only grandson will be permanently retarded. "Pearl S. Buck's Book of Christmas" by Pearl Buck.

Thirty-nine favorite short stories to suit every mood. BIOGRAPHY "The Hiding Place" by Corrie Ten Boom. Corrie Ten Boom's account of her amazing family's experiences during the German occupation of Holland reveals her indomitable Christian faith.

Cut your peak winter heating bills as much as 45%.

Join our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan now.

Our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan has never made more sense than it does now.

We know it's tough to budget for monthly Gas bills that can be as much as six times higher in the cold winter months than in these hot summer ones. The 12-Month Budget Payment Plan lets you even out your Gas bills for the year ahead with 12 monthly installments.

Here's how the Plan works. First, we determine how much Gas you used last year and calculate its total cost at today's rates. Then we divide that total cost by 12 to give you the budget amount you can expect each month from August of this year through July of next year, no matter how cold it might get during the winter.

Results? Your mid-winter budget bills can be as much as 45% below what your normal peak heating payments would otherwise have been.

Of course, if you saved Gas last year by installing ceiling insulation, storm doors and windows or permanently dialed down your thermostat, your monthly budget bills will be even lower than if you hadn't taken these energy conservation measures.

If any adjustments need to be made to your budget payment amount during the year, we'll notify you. Or, if you overpay or underpay a bit for the budget year, we'll make the necessary adjustment on your August 1976 bill.

To enroll, just return the postage paid card we're sending you. Or if you've misplaced it, call us, and we'll sign you up over the phone.

Our Gas is still your lowest cost fuel. And our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan will make it a lot more convenient to pay for. Enroll today.

IN NEED OF HELP — The 34th District Court is finding itself in a serious situation, faced with losing its dilapidated quarters, and Romulus Mayor Terry Troutt is trying to stir up concern among the five communities the court services. Troutt met with community officials last week in hopes of finding some solution to the court's plight. — The Enterprise-Roman photo.

Residents can delay payment

Area residents receiving homestead tax exemptions, such as senior citizens, the handicapped, servicemen, veterans or the spouses of an eligible veteran or serviceman, may be able to delay their summer tax payments this year.

Gov. William G. Milliken is expected to sign into law soon a bill which will permit those persons receiving special homestead tax exemptions to delay payment of taxes normally due Aug. 31 until Feb. 15.

Belleville City Treasurer James White said the delay is designed to give persons full benefits of tax rebates to be sent to them during the summer and to allow them to apply those rebates to their taxes.

"This ought to make a lot of senior citizens and other residents receiving exemptions happy," White said. "If persons need information on the proposal, or wonder if they're eligible I can handle calls in Belleville, and I'm sure treasurers in other communities will have the information available as well."

Mart opens

A new Farmers Market to serve residents of Wayne and surrounding Western Wayne County communities held its grand opening festivities this past weekend.

The new market operates on a 3-acre land parcel located on Michigan Avenue, 800 feet west of Newburgh Road in Wayne. Robert Skolnik of Canton Township, who is manager of the family-owned business, has extended an open invitation to area farmers, flea market operators, wholesale and retail produce sellers and those persons wishing to exhibit arts and crafts to participate in the operation.

"The operation of a new farmers market in the area has been under consideration for more than two years," Skolnik said. Our future plans include the construction of a permanent structure to house the market."

Youngsters ready for Olympics

Next week will prove to be a busy one for organizers and contestants alike when the fourth annual International Special Olympics get started at Central Michigan University (CMU) in Mt. Pleasant.

The games are co-sponsored by CMU and the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, with the competition geared for the mentally handicapped. More than 3,000 youngsters from throughout the United States, including representatives of Western Wayne County communities, and several foreign countries will vie, according to age and ability groups, for the coveted gold, silver and bronze medals in team and individual sports.

Champions will be sought in track and field, swimming and diving, gymnastics, ice skating, wheelchair sports, basketball, bowling, volleyball, floor hockey and the pentathlon during the 4-day event.

Kicking off the activities next Thursday will be the "Parade of Champions" at 6 p.m. with the opening ceremonies planned for 6:30 p.m. in Ferry Shorts Stadium. That event will be followed by an outdoor carnival, horse show, band concert and dance.

On Aug. 8, individual events will kick off at 8 a.m. at Rose Arena, Finch Fieldhouse, Alumni Field and University Center.

Evening activities will include an entertainment feature, "Life on Campus," and a celebrity concert. Competition will continue on Aug. 9 at 8 a.m. with the basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, bowling, swimming, track and field and pentathlon events.

The day's activities will conclude at 5 p.m. with the closing ceremonies at Perry Shorts Stadium and victory dances in the respective residence halls and Finch Fieldhouse.

To give visiting teams a chance to sample Michigan's hospitality Aug. 10 will be "Exploration Day" for the youngsters, with tours of cities throughout the state planned.

The visiting delegates and their chaperones will depart from CMU on Aug. 11, thus concluding this year's competition.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP BOARD MINUTES

Regular Meeting Minutes July 22, 1975
Meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Supervisor Gollwitzer called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM. Members present were: Supervisor Gollwitzer, Treasurer York, Dep. Clerk Soja and Trustees Domes, Kelly and Kureth. Absent were: Clerk Cullin, (on vacation) and Trustee Maton, excused, (wife in hospital). Also present were: Attorney Rice, Engineer Kelley and 8 interested citizens. Motion Kelly, support Domes, to accept the minutes of the regular meeting of 6-24-75 as presented. CARRIED. Motion Domes, support York, to accept the minutes of the regular meeting of 7-8-75 presented. CARRIED. Senator Faust's letter was read stating he would support an amendment to HB 4602 to exclude the requirement of municipalities reporting job openings to the Michigan Employment Security Commission, and if this failed, to oppose the bill. Kureth stated he thought the resolution read to exclude that requirement for all employers. It did not. No action was taken.

Motion Kureth, support York, to oppose HB 4239 which would place an inheritance tax on jointly owned property. CARRIED.

Motion Kureth, support Kelly, to support the resolutions of Grosse Pointe Woods and Romulus objecting to the inequitable practices of the Detroit Metro Water Dept. and Commissioners in 3 areas. 1. No representation of suburban areas 2. No auditing by outside agencies 3. Not holding public hearings on rate changes. CARRIED.

Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to note and file the resolution from Romulus in regard to SB 580, which would provide for an incentive for home improvements not exceeding $3000. by the elimination of increased taxes. CARRIED.

Mr. Lampert, Attorney, Mr. D. Cohen, and Mr. Pepis, Engineer, appeared before the board in behalf of their request to get permission from Van Buren Township to tie into Ypsilanti Township sewer. Township Engineer Kelley gave his report stating that in checking with Ypsi Township, they are in the process of obtaining a secondary pump for the station at Snow and Rawsonville Roads. Ypsi Township Engineer Stated verbally that the sewer was designed just for Ypsi Township use. Engineer Kelley stated that he has not seen any data to substantiate this. Engineer Kelley says that this is what every community does. They design capacity for their own use. Attorney Rice read State Statutes that permission and agreements of both townships must be obtained. Michigan Constitution provides franchises can be granted from one township to another. It also states that governments must have control over its facilities. Conclusion is that consent of both townships is necessary and that consent cannot be withheld arbitrarily and unreasonably. Trustee Kureth said he felt Ypsilanti sewers are overloaded. Trustee Kelly stated he felt we should adhere to precedent of not allowing anyone to tie into other communities sewers. Motion Domes, support Kelly to deny the request of David Cohen to tie into Ypsilanti sewer. CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Motion Kelly, support Domes, to retain members of the Huron River Watershed Council, and pay the yearly dues. CARRIED.

Motion Kelly, support Domes, to note and file the correspondence from the Department of State Highways in reference to 1977 Public Transportation program application. CARRIED.

Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to note the correspondence from Romulus City in regard to their problems at the public disposal system sites. CARRIED. Mr. Gollwitzer reported on the 34th District Court facility meeting stating that the 34th District Court serves 5 communities but the law states the court be operated by the largest community in the district which is Romulus. The law also says any community with over 10,000 population, court should be held in that community. We had waived that before. It might cost us more to do nothing and then have to provide court facilities in our community. Kureth said legislation should be enacted to provide a facility for the court. Mayor Troutt proposed forming a Court Operating Board, to take care of site planning and location. The present Court facility is in the Metro Airport expansion zone. The next meeting is set for July 23 at 3 PM. Motion Kureth, support York, to table any action for further information. CARRIED.

No action was taken on the levy of the 1 percent collection fee on property taxes. Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to purchase 3 extra binders for the tax rolls. CARRIED.

Webb Forging request for an Industrial Development District was discussed. Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to hold a public hearing on August 12, 1975 at 7:00 PM at the Township Hall on the establishment of an Industrial Development District. CARRIED.

Communication from Ypsilanti City was read stating that George D. Goodman, Mayor, John D. Hooker, Mayor Protem, and William P. Cay Jr., Council member were appointed as interim members to present Ypsilanti City on the Airport Authority Board. Supervisor Gollwitzer reported on the Task Force meeting held July 22 at 9:30 AM, and that the next meeting would be held early in the fall. Role of the airport cannot be changed. Costs, revenue and restrictions were discussed.

The request of Mr. Miller from Mr. Pizza to use electricity from the old Township Hall to operate his Pizza over at the Belleville Sidewalk fair was referred to the Chamber of Commerce. It is up to the Chamber as to how many, so as not to overload the circuits.

Domes spoke about the Recreation Commission minutes where they asked for the boat docking site on Haggerty to remain open. They will have more information at the next meeting.

Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to accept the Water Department Financial and Fund reports as presented. CARRIED.

Motion Domes, support Kelly to obtain 20 copies of the new Vehicle Code books at $3.00 each for the police department. CARRIED.

Supervisor Gollwitzer announced that a company picnic would be held at the Van Buren park for all Township employees and families. The tentative date set for August 1st right after work.

Motion Kelly, support Domes, to approve the amended voucher lists as presented deleting the water department figure for G.G.L. Contracting. CARRIED.

Engineer Kelley reported on the status of the Water and Sewer Authority. The bids are to be awarded July 25th at 4:00 P.M. He will have progress reports on the authority project once a month for the board.

Motion Domes, support Kelly, to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 8:45 PM.

Respectfully submitted
Stephanie Soja, Deputy Clerk
Van Buren Township

Why Buy Now?

A HOME IS A GOOD INVESTMENT!

Home interest rates are high. . .no one will deny that! But mortgage money is available and it is still a good investment. Home interest rates are not as high as most other family credit. . .and when you buy a home at an established interest rate, your payments will remain the same for the life of your mortgage. And your equity continues to build and build! To wait for a decrease in mortgage rates can be costly. A one percent decrease in interest rate on a $40,000 home would mean a saving of only about $345 a year. . .much less than the cost of home building will increase in a year's time.

Enjoy the luxury. . .and the tax-saving benefit. . .of a new home today! Why not talk it over with one of Earl Keim Realty's "HELPFUL PEOPLE"? Let us show you why you can't do better than right now!
